A TRIBUTE TO OUR DECEASED MINISTERS

Elder Gary Compton

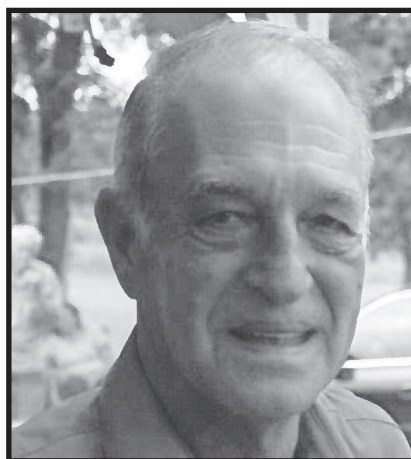

Elder Roger Gibson

Elder Don Parker

Brother Tom Thacker

Elder Allen Whitaker

The voices of Brothers Gary Compton, Roger Gibson, Don Parker, Tom Thacker and Allen Whitaker have grown silent, yet the fruits of their labors and fond memories of their lives will remain with us for many years to come. As their frail bodies fell, their spirit went to God who gave it. They fought a good fight; they finished their course; they kept the faith; they have gone to receive their reward, a crown of righteousness and a home in Heaven.

MINUTES OF THE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FOURTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE
INDIAN BOTTOM ASSOCIATION OF
OLD REGULAR BAPTIST CHURCHES
OF JESUS CHRIST
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2019 AND
THE TWO FOLLOWING DAYS

The Indian Bottom Association, being in session, assembled at our association building at Sassafras, Knott County, Kentucky, on September 6, 2019 and the two following days. Hosted by the Cedar Grove Church and co-hosted by the New Home and the Big Leatherwood Churches, the association met in the congregational department of the association building for preaching services. After singing some old songs of Zion, Elder Mike Smallwood introduced the service and led in prayer. Elder Toby Breeding followed with the introductory sermon.

The delegates were dismissed from the congregational department and asked to assemble in the delegate room. Brothers H.B. Reedy, Jr., Jimmy W. Hall, Eddie Newsome and Bill Johnson were appointed by the moderator to remain in the congregational department for preaching services. In the delegate room, Elder Elwood Cornett, the moderator, welcomed the delegates and called upon Elder Willie Crase to introduce the session and Elder Squire Watts to lead in prayer. The Association, now being assembled, was called to order by Elder Elwood Cornett. He appointed a finance committee to wit: Brothers John Reedy, Danny Amburgey and Ed Creech. He then called for the letters of the several churches that compose the Indian Bottom Association.

1. A motion was made, seconded, and passed with no objection, to read the letter of the Cedar Grove Church. The letter was read by the clerk. By a move and second, with no objection, it was received, along with all other church letters, as they were in regular form; the delegates were seated and all requests and queries were referred to the Committee on Arrangements.
2. The Association was then organized by choosing the following officers:
 - Elder Elwood Cornett, Moderator
 - Elder Jim Fields, Assistant Moderator
 - Elder Don Pratt, Clerk/Treasurer
 - Brother Bob Banks, Assistant Clerk

(The following brothers had been appointed to count the votes:
Brothers Rick Whitaker, Daryl Slone and Tim Clapp.)

Elder Elwood Cornett gave the following counsel to the delegates of our churches:

“The fellowship we enjoy in the Indian Bottom Association is possible because of agreements made, some of them many, many years ago. Those agreements are still in effect and necessary for our future fellowship.

- Ministers are not to preach in churches outside our association except in funerals and family memorials. Also, Indian Bottom Churches are not to use ministers from other churches outside of the Indian Bottom Association in their regular church services.
- Churches are not to baptize or take into fellowship any members that have been excluded from other Indian Bottom churches. Those members must go back to the church from which they were excluded to gain fellowship.
- Churches should advise their members that the Lord’s Supper is a gospel ordinance and that foot washing is a commandment of Jesus Christ and should be practiced regularly.
- Ministers that have presented themselves as preachers of the Gospel of Christ should be up and about the Father’s business. This includes not only Sunday, but also Saturday, Saturday night and whenever Christ can be worshiped.
- Singing is not preaching. When singing does not feed the flock, it should be left off. Church service is not for the preacher but it is for the listener.
- Preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ focuses on God the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. It is not about the minister. The use of the words I or Me should be rare. The scriptures are full of examples of what Jesus did and said.
- Preaching the Gospel does not bore the congregation. When the people begin to be bored, it’s past time for the minister to sit down. Ministers must be very respectful of everyone’s time.”

3. By a move and second, with no objection, the moderator was directed to make all temporary appointments.
4. Elder Don Pratt, the clerk, requested the temporary appointment of Brother Rick Whitaker as an assistant clerk. Brother Elwood Cornett then appointed Brother Rick Whitaker as an assistant clerk.
5. The moderator appointed a Committee on Ministry composed of one delegate from each of the churches to arrange the preaching services for Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.
6. The moderator called for newly constituted churches desiring to take up fellowship with us: None responded.
7. Churches of our same faith and order who desired fellowship with us were called for: None responded.

8. By a move and second, with no objection, it was decided to omit the reading of the Articles of Faith, the Constitution and the Rules of Decorum and to print the Articles of Faith, the Constitution and the Rules of Decorum in the minutes.
9. The moderator called for transient members and ministers and the following responded:
Elder Paul Watson
10. The Committee on Ministry made the following report for preaching services:

Friday afternoon: Brothers Shawn Jude and Josh Huff.

Saturday morning: Brothers Ray Williamson, Allen Fugate,
Dewayne Belcher and Randall Branham.
11. The moderator appointed a Committee on Arrangements composed of one delegate from each church, together with the association moderator, assistant moderator, clerk and assistant clerk.
12. A move and second, with no objection, were made for the Committee on Arrangements to meet on Friday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. and arrange the business for Saturday.
13. By a move and second, with no objection, the Association was adjourned until 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning. The singing will start in the congregational department at 9:30 a.m.

The Committee on Arrangements met at 1:00 p.m. on Friday afternoon in the congregational department of the association building. After singing, Elder Shawn Jude introduced the session and Brother Danny Hamilton led in prayer. He was followed by Elder Josh Huff, after which the committee arranged the work for Saturday. Elder Arthur Amburgey called dismissal.

SATURDAY MORNING

The association met pursuant to adjournment. After singing some songs of Zion, Elder Elwood Cornett, our moderator, welcomed everyone and called upon Elder Ronnie Robinson to introduce the session and Brother Roy Slone to lead in prayer.

1. The clerk called the roll and marked the absentees.
2. The report of the Committee on Arrangements was given by the clerk of the association. A move and second, with no objection, were made to accept the report.

3. The ministers chosen by the Committee on Ministry to preach on the stand were excused to go to the congregational department of the association building.
4. The Committee on Finance reported a sum of $7,235.00 collected from the various churches. By a move and second, with no objection, the report was received and the committee discharged.
5. By a move and second, with no objection, the minutes of this session of the association were ordered to be printed. The clerk is to be secretary/treasurer and will decide how many copies to have printed and distributed to each church, according to the amount of money collected.
6. By a move and second, with no objection, the dates of the union, communion, memorial services and appointed meetings are to be printed in the minutes.
7. The circular letter was read by Elder Eddie Newsome, who had been chosen last year to write a circular letter for consideration by the association this year. By a move and second, with no objection, the letter was received and ordered to be printed in the minutes.
8. A. The Committee on Ministry, being the same as on Friday, chose the following ministers to preach on Sunday, to wit: Brothers Elwood Cornett, Jim Fields, Don Pratt, Emory Caudill and Earl Combs.

By a move and second, with no objection, the work of the Committee on Ministry was approved.

B. Elder Randall Branham was chosen to preach the introductory sermon for the 2020 session and Brother Mike Slone to be the alternate.

C. Elder Eddie Creech was chosen to write a circular letter for consideration of approval next year.

(The following brothers had been appointed to count the ballot votes: Brothers Mike Melton and Jeff Roark. By a move and second, with no objection, their work was approved.)

9. By a move and second, with no objection, obituaries are to be printed in the minutes. Obituaries may be given to the clerks at any time during the year. They are to be typed and may be on paper, a computer disk or flash drive in MS Word or emailed to the clerks.

10. The treasurer's report was given by the clerk. By a move and second, with no objection, the report was received and ordered to be printed in the minutes. The report is as follows:

Balance on hand (9/1/18).....	$1,612.21

By a move and second, with no objection, Brother Russell Amburgey was appointed as an Indian Bottom Association building trustee to replace Brother Roger Gibson, who passed away during the past year.

12. The Committee on Council did not meet during the past year therefore no report was read by the clerk.

Elder Elwood Cornett, our moderator, appointed the following brothers to serve as the Committee on Council for the next year: Bill Johnson, Freddy Compton, Emory Caudill, Mike Melton, David O'Quinn, Ronnie Robinson and Elwood Cornett.

13. A verbal request from the Little Dove Church to host the 2020 Association was made. The request was granted by a move and second with no objection.
14. Verbal requests from the Rock Fork, Bethlehem, Friendship and Little Bethlehem Churches to co-host the 2020 Association were granted by a move and second with no objection.
15. The request from the Cedar Grove Church to print in the minutes the names of the brothers who preached the introductory sermon or wrote the circular letter during the past twenty years was read. The request was granted by a move and second with no objection.
16. The request from the Mount Olive Church to remove Brother David Music's name from the Association's Ministers List was read. The request was granted by a move and second with no objection.
17. By a move and second, with no objection, the clerks were directed to write a tribute to the deceased ministers of the Indian Bottom Association.
18. By a move and second, with no objection, the clerks were directed to write a resolution of appreciation to the Cedar Grove, New Home and Big Leatherwood Churches for hosting the 2019 session of the Indian Bottom Association.
19. There was a move and second, with no objection, to have services at the association building on the following odd-Sundays: December 1, March 1, May 31 and August 30.
20. By a move and second, with no objection, the reading of the minutes of the 2019 session of the Indian Bottom Association was omitted and ordered to be printed in the 2019 minute book.
21. By a move and second, with no objection, we adjourned until the 2020 session of the Indian Bottom Association convenes on September 4, 2020. Elder Terry Bryant made the closing remarks and Elder John P. Church led the closing prayer.

SUNDAY

On the final day of the one hundred and twenty fourth session of the Indian Bottom Association, brothers, sisters, family and friends gathered at the Association Building. After singing some songs of Zion, Brother Earl Combs introduced the service and Elder Eddie Creech led in prayer. He was followed by Elders Emory Caudill, Don Pratt and Jim Fields. Elder Elwood Cornett then came forth and brought the meeting to a close. Elder Toby Breeding led in the prayer of dismissal, thus ending the 2019 session of the Indian Bottom Association.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO HOST CHURCHES

We, the Indian Bottom Association, wish to express our appreciation to the Cedar Grove, New Home and Big Leatherwood Churches for hosting the 2019 session of our association. You did a wonderful job! We also extend our heart-felt thanks to members of our sister churches, our children, grandchildren, family members and friends who also helped. We also appreciate the snacks and hot coffee provided in the concession stand. May God bless you all for your labor of love.

CIRCULAR LETTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Indian Bottom Association:

Last year, the delegates placed a great responsibility on me by choosing this unworthy servant to prepare a circular letter for this year. I have not taken this task lightly. I pray God will move upon me with His spirit. I feel unworthy, but with God's help I will try.

In Titus 2:11-12, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world." Titus 3:5-7, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior. That being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life." For in John 1:11-12, "He came unto His own and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name."

I pray that we can continue to walk together like the ones that came before us; leaving a foundation for the ones that come after us. It is good enough to take us to Heaven one day. For in Psalms 133:1, "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." We show love and preach the gospel and bring glad tidings from above. So we are commanded to preach the word which is Jesus Christ and to keep ourselves unspotted from the world. The church and the world are two different people. He never came here to condemn the world but through Him might be saved.

Sometimes brethren, I need to feel God's mighty hand. Sometimes the valley gets very deep, but when I feel His love manifested in my soul, it's then that Satan and all his angels cannot convince me that I am not on the path to glory. The rock of my salvation; the God of all glory is at my side. No wonder David could say in Psalms 23:1-6, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

So brethren, I believe this proves that God has a plan of salvation and a solution for man's redemption even before the fall of Adam. I also believe He had chosen men to carry out this plan. God made man a free moral agent to choose His own way, Heaven a place of joy and peace or Hell a place where there's pain, where the fire is never quenched and the worm dieth not.

So brethren, if man is in darkness, I believe that he is still in his sins. So then James 4:8 says, "Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up." In Hebrews 11:6, "But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." Also Hebrews 13:7, "Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation." And in 1 Timothy 4:6, "If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and good doctrine, where unto thou hast attained."

So my brethren, and especially our preaching brethren, both young and old, we should earnestly contend for the faith that was once delivered unto the saints. So in our preaching and in our lives, let us try to show the world about the goodness of God. I'd like to beg all sinners to make peace with the Lord while there is still time.

I pray these words that are written here will reach the heart of sinners and cause them to choose Jesus as their Savior so that we will meet in Heaven on that great day. I look forward, brothers and sisters, to the day we meet around the great throne of God.

Your humble brother in Christ,
Elder Eddie Newsome

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituaries

JEAN DIXON ADAMS

Jean Dixon Adams was born in Letcher County, Kentucky at Blackey on July 23, 1942. She was the oldest daughter of Bob and Alice Dixon. She passed away on Sunday, May 19, 2019.

Jean married the love of her life and husband of sixty-one years, Jimmy Adams, on July 5, 1958. Together, Jean and Jimmy raised their two children, Michael Shade Adams (Fran) and Mary Carolyn Adams Sturgill (Tim). Jean was a proud grandmother of Brett Adams (Jennifer), Nikki Adams, Aaron Sturgill, Connor Sturgill and Dalton Sturgill. She was blessed with three great grandchildren, Parker, Cole and Kanaan Adams. Jean has three sisters, Helen Amburgey, Chris Asher, Gladys Allen and a step-sister, Wanda Keaton, along with a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends to mourn her passing.

Jean was a loving, kind, bright and hard working woman. She was an over achiever in school and graduated from Stuart Robinson High School at the young age of fifteen. She was an amazing cook and quickly became known for her chicken and dumplings and biscuits and gravy. Jean always enjoyed getting together with family and friends and leaves us all with cherished memories.

Isaiah 43:1, "Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine."

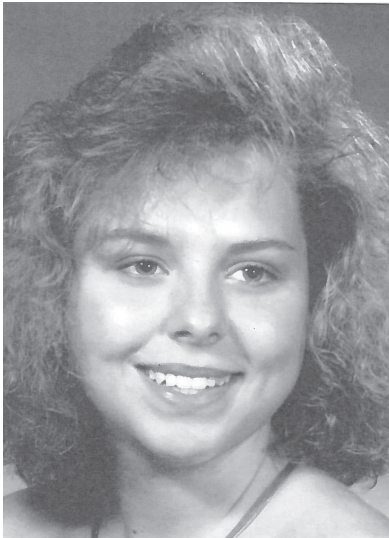

LAURA MAE ADAMS

Laura Mae Kimbley Adams, age eighty, of Jeremiah, Kentucky, passed away Thursday, January 24, 2019 at the Pikeville Medical Center. She was born on May 23, 1938 and was the daughter of the late Henry and Minerva Jones Kimbley. She was the widow of Courtney Adams Sr. Surviving are two sons, Courtney "Toby" and Jeanette Adams of Jeremiah and Keith and Diane Adams of Blackey; one daughter, Janice Lynn Adkins of Jeremiah; grandchildren, Tatum, Dusto, Shiloh, Bryan (Amber), Derrick (Christan), Katlyn, Ethan (Crystal), and Courtney Lynn (Tim); great grandchildren: Atlee, Lauren, Taylor, Cole, Gage, Charleigh, Oliver, Arlo Reed, Hayden, Carly, and Aleaha; and two sisters, Isabel Frazier and Wilma Pridemore both of Isom. Laura Mae was preceded in death by one daughter, Melissa "Missy Cat" Brown; two brothers, Andrew and Pete; and five sisters, Irene, Iva Dale, Helen, Ruth, and Margie.

JUDY LYNN ADKINS

Judy Lynn Stiltner Adkins, forty-six years of age of Grundy, Virginia, passed away July 20, 2019. Born in Buchanan County, she was the daughter of James “Pete” Stiltner and the late Sherry Howard Stiltner. She was of the Baptist faith. She was a loving mother, daughter, sister, and friend. She had previously worked as a registered nurse.

In addition to her mother, she was preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, James Ralph and Stella Evelyn Stiltner; her maternal grandparents, Pearl and Evelyn Howard; and her uncle, Dean Stiltner.

Judy will be missed by all who knew her, but we have our memories of the special times we spent with her, and of her beautiful smile.

Written by her Aunt Joyce

GAYNELL BACK

After sharing ninety-five years with family and friends, Gay passed away on June 25, 2019 in Lexington. She lived most of her life in Blackey, Kentucky, and enjoyed good health until shortly before her passing. Gaynell and Ollie James Back had celebrated sixty-four years of marriage when he passed in 2010. She was the daughter of the late Jesse and Jane Back of Elk Creek. Gay was a longtime member of the Mt. Olivet Regular Baptist Church in Blackey.

As a graduate of Stuart Robinson School, Gay would fondly recollect her days there and the lasting friendships she made. She was a wonderful homemaker, and loved to quilt, garden, and can summer vegetables. Gay loved her family and friends and always enjoyed sharing memories and stories. Gay and Ollie were also active members of the Blackey Senior Citizen Community Center where they enjoyed many years at “the Center” spending time with friends.

Gay remained active and had moved to Village Heights in London, Kentucky where she could be near her brother, Dorse, and participate in the social activities she enjoyed. We are thankful for her long, full life and will miss her smile.

Gay is survived by two sons, James Gary (Carmolyn) and John Joel (Dorothy); one sister, Hope Campbell; one brother, Dorse; and a step-grandson, Jonathan Nickles. She was preceded in death by sisters, Bonnie Duke, Maude Caudill and Madge Breeding and brothers, Troy, Tom, Joe and Clyde.

Gay will be fondly remembered by a host of other family and friends, and her community.

NELL M. BAILEY

It is with much love and fondness for her that I attempt to write about the life of my precious mother, Nell Bailey. Momma was born into the home of William R. (Bill) and Sarah Garrett Mullins on February 27, 1933. She was one of eleven siblings. God called her to her Heavenly Home on August 28, 2018, being eighty-five years old.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of sixty-six years, Monroe Bailey; as well as her son-in-law, Ralph Deel; her three brothers, Cline Mullins, Junior Mullins and Ellis Mullins; and four sisters, Gay Epling, Marie Smith Helms, Beatrice O'Quinn and Martha Wallace.

Survivors include her children, son, Tony (Cathy) Bailey of Winchester, Kentucky and daughter, Cathy Deel of Haysi, Virginia; and her grandchildren, Ralph Nathan Deel of Haysi, Virginia and Ashley (Clifton) Kennon of Winchester, Kentucky. Nell is also survived by her sisters, Betty Deel of Fairborn, Ohio, Elizabeth Cantrell of Winchester, Kentucky and Ruby (Bob) Compton of Fairborn, Ohio; and her sister-in-law, Arbutus Mullins of Emory, Virginia. She also leaves behind many nieces and nephews, too numerous to count.

Momma loved her and Daddy's families dearly and they all loved her so very much. In addition to being a housewife, she loved caring for little children; her eyes would light up just being with one. She worked with Headstart and babysit in her home for many years. She once said she would love for all the children she had kept to speak at her funeral. Someone jokingly told her in that case, her funeral would last all day.

Momma was a good, kind and considerate woman who always put others first. There came a time in her life when she fell under deep conviction because of her sins. She cried out to God and begged Him to forgive her for all she had done against Him. She felt He lifted her heavy burdens, to be remembered no more. She joined the church and was baptized the third Sunday in July, 1951.

Momma and Dad were united in marriage on July 9, 1951. They were blessed with sixty-six wonderful years together, so devoted to one another. Daddy developed black lung, COPD and Parkinson's disease. He became bedfast and unable to do much for himself. Her life revolved around him, doing everything she possibly could to make him more comfortable. She developed interstitial lung disease making it harder and harder for her to breathe. When Dad passed away, it seemed she gave up her will to live, her grief was so deep. She lived six months and a day after he died. Now I believe with all my heart they are reunited in Heaven, just waiting for the resurrection morning when we all can be together again forever and forever praising God for all He has done for us. My brother and I have a hope of meeting them there some day.

My brother and I feel so blessed to have had the parents we did. They taught us about God, to love and honor Him, to go to Him with our problems, and that He and He alone could forgive our sins and trespasses and give us eternal life, that He would always be by our side and never forsake us. Even if I had the power to bring her back to this world, I wouldn't for she has never been happier. She has seen God's face, received her robe and crown and is living in Paradise.

Her family misses her tender smile, being able to talk to her for advice and just to be with her. We will always love her; no one could ever take her place in our hearts. She loved her family, friends, and her church family with a love that could only come from God.

SAMMIE BAILEY

Sammie Bailey, age eighty-four, of Pyramid, Kentucky was born November 3, 1934 in Aurthur Mable of Magoffin County, Kentucky, and passed away on Saturday, July 6, 2019 at Highlands Regional Medical Center, Prestonsburg, Kentucky. He was the son of the late Kelly and Gracie Conley-Bailey.

He married Juanita Patrick on November 8, 1955. One of his favorite things to tell was how Juanita threw her engagement ring out the window as they drove down the road. Despite this little “ring toss”, they were married for sixty-three and a half years. Together they had five children, Sherril, Jackie Ellis, Lisa, Kenneth, and Kevin.

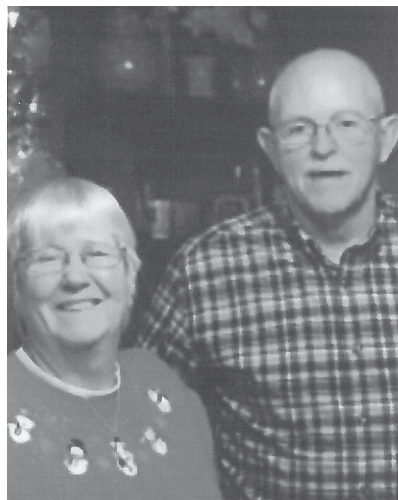

Along with his wife, he is survived by his sons and daughter, Kenneth (Patti) Bailey of Ohio, Kevin (Trish) Bailey of Pyramid, Kentucky, and Lisa Bailey (Paul) Turner of Pyramid, Kentucky; grandchildren, Jackie E. Bailey Jr., Samuel Bailey, Kellie Bailey, Jason E. Bailey, Angela Allerdin, Debe Bailey, Kenny Bailey, Jesse Bailey, Paul Daniel Turner, Rebecca Turner, Kaylie Boyd, Katherine Powell, and Ty Ward; and a host of great grandchildren.

Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by his sons, Sherril Bailey and Jackie E. Bailey Sr., and sister, Bertie Mae Howard.

Throughout Sammie’s life, he had multiple occupations which included coal mining, logging and carpentry, but his passion was always flea marketing. He loved telling stories, showing his magic tricks, and telling his jokes; he loved talking with anyone that stopped by.

Sammie loved his children, but his grandchildren and great grandchildren were a special joy to him.

He accepted the Lord later in his life, which is a comfort to us all. He was always a delight to be around and won the hearts of many throughout his lifetime. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

CLARENCE BLAIR

Clarence Blair was born on August 24, 1946 and passed away on January, 13, 2019 at the Greg and Noreen Wells Hospice Care Center in Hazard, Kentucky. His life on earth was seventy-two years, four months and nineteen days. He was the only son of the late Delbert and Juanita Back Blair.

Clarence is survived by me, his wife, Dorothy Nell Blair. We were married on March 30, 1973. We made our home at Red Fox, Kentucky. To our union, three children were born. We had two daughters, Selenia Kay Blair Slone and Tennille Blair and one son, Bradley C. Blair. We have two grandchildren, Jordan Blake Slone and Brianna Shae Slone. We loved our children and grandchildren very much. When Clarence was sick with cancer, they helped me to take care of him; Selenia Kay and her friend, Debbie, and Tennille and her friend, Cindy, and Bradley C. Blair.

Clarence was a loving husband, father and grandpa. He loved my family as his own; all of my sisters and brothers, nieces, nephews, cousins and his church friends. He was a kind man to his neighbors also. He was the love of my life and he was my fishing buddy. We spent many years together fishing in our boat with our son, Bradley.

Clarence became real sick in April, 2010. He always loved going to church. He joined the Mount Olivet

Church and was baptized on July 4, 2010. He claimed a hope in the Lord years before he joined. Clarence was a farmer, an Army Veteran, a carpenter, a coal miner and a great fisherman.

Clarence became ill in December, 2018 with lung cancer. He had it about a year before the doctor found it to tell us. The Lord saw he was getting tired and came and took his pain away. God loved him and I feel he is in Heaven at rest. I hope to meet him someday with our Heavenly father.

ESTILL BLAIR

Estill Blair of Jeremiah, Kentucky, passed away at his residence on December 30, 2018. He was the son of the late Bennie and Bessie Watts Blair. Estill was born on April 7, 1949, making his stay here on earth sixty-nine years, eight months and twenty-three days.

He is survived by his wife of forty-two years, Alma Rose Blair; one step-daughter, Christy Duke Kincaid and her husband, Steven, of Versailles, Kentucky; two granddaughters, Hannah and Isabella of Versailles; and two grandsons, Sam and Max, also of Versailles. Estill is also survived by two sisters, Mary Helen Blair and Nancy Carol Craft; and two brothers, Larry and Winford.

Estill was preceded in death by four brothers, Willis, Everett, Astor and Lexter; and three sisters, twins Nora and Cora and Beulah Mae Barrier.

Estill was a member of the Blair Branch Old Regular Baptist Church for the last eighteen years. He served the church as treasurer until being diagnosed with brain cancer. Estill loved his church and was always doing things that was needed around the church.

He loved and doted on his four grandchildren. He liked to take them fishing and he liked to take them for walks around the neighborhood. They loved getting in the water near the church and playing. We often got to missing them and always knew where to go find them, in the water by the church.

Estill had a small shop where he spent most of his time tinkering on a lawnmower or weedeater for someone. You could always tell when spring was here because of all the repairs he had to work on, most of the time at no charge. Plenty of people got lawnmowers and weed eaters given to them because once they were fixed, he didn't need them. His grandson, Sam, has the same hobby and his PoPo, as the grandchildren called him, was so proud of him. We first learned of Sam's repairs when Estill was in the hospital at U.K. with brain cancer. Estill told Sam to take his tractor home and use it. Sam has redone it completely and it is his pride and joy now. We are all really proud of him.

Estill had surgery at U.K. on August 20, 2018. The doctors told us that he only had four to five months to live. He accepted the news and faced it with the faith of a true Christian. He wanted to spend what time he had with his family and friends. He never wanted to be a burden to anyone. Estill didn't suffer any pain that he let us know about. On December 30, 2019, the Lord saw fit to take him home. He leaves behind an empty space in the hearts of his family and friends.

HOLLY BEVINS BRANHAM

It is with a sad and aching heart I will try to write the obituary of my loving husband, Holly B. Branham. He was born in Maxie, Virginia on January 6, 1943 to the late Julius and Clarcie Branham of Grundy, Virginia. He was preceded in death by his sister, Mary Ann Thacker. He is survived by his wife, Linda Gay Deel Branham and two brothers, J.C. Branham of Marvin, Virginia and Larry Branham of Richlands, Virginia.

Holly was a kind and gentle person who always worried about his brothers and me. He loved my parents, sister, brothers and nephews and was always willing to help when he could. He enjoyed talking and visiting with his friends and neighbors over the years. He never met a stranger and would start a conversation with people whom he had never seen before.

He was a Veteran of the United States Army, having served during the Vietnam War. He received several medals, including the National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal with three Bronze Service Stars and the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal.

For several years, Holly had problems with his eyes, kidney stones and eventually his heart. Five years ago, he became very sick due to his heart failure caused by a very weak heart. It became worse and would lead to other problems. Doctors here were unable to help him so we went to the Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio for help. During one of the flights there, they gave him a drug to keep him alive and due to complications from that drug causing gangrene, he lost his left arm and toes. After being moved from one place to another, he finally came home after five months. With the help of the good Lord, he finally got a little better but always had problems. In October, Holly's health began to worsen and then shortly after, he had to be transferred back to the Cleveland Clinic. This time his heart was much weaker and was causing his other organs to be affected. After a couple of days, God called him home. I stood by his side to the end because he was always calling out my name making sure I was there. He called out my name just shortly before taking his last breath.

I know after fifty-four years of marriage, things will never be the same but at least he isn't suffering anymore. He will be greatly missed by all of us. We aren't worried about him because he prayed all the time and was asking God to forgive him of his sins. We feel our loss is Heaven's gain.

VICTOR RANDOLPH CAMPBELL

Victor Randolph "Randy" Campbell was born on October 27, 1949, to Molly Hope Campbell and Victor "Big" Campbell. Randy was preceded in death by his loving father, Big.

Randy loved his family. He had one brother, J.P. Campbell and sister-in-law, Susan, and two sisters, Rebecca Pridemore, married to Gary and Anna Gay Back, married to Jerry. He was also blessed with many nieces and nephews that filled his heart with joy.

After graduating from Letcher High School, Randy enlisted and served in the US Navy for four years. When he was honorably discharged from the Navy, he moved back to Letcher County, Kentucky. Randy spent many years as a coal miner, and then as state mine inspector until he retired.

In 1983, Randy met and married his lovely wife, Nancy Parker. They enjoyed thirty-five years of love and happiness. During this time, they were greatly blessed with two sons, William (Davina) and Patrick (Amanda). Years later, Randy and Nancy were blessed again with two beautiful granddaughters, Charlee Elise and Parker Elizabeth. Randy was totally devoted to both of them and they to him.

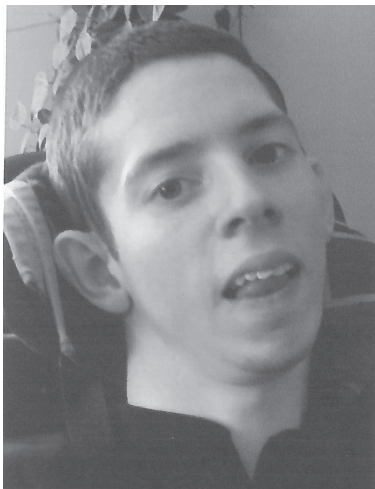

During Randy's retirement years, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, and gardening, along with an endless list of hobbies and activities. One of his favorite past times was teaching young people to hunt. Every hunt each of these young people enjoyed was immortalized by his re-telling the story of the day's adventures. Our home is still filled with many pictures of his successful hunts.

Randy was a devoted member of the Cedar Grove Old Regular Baptist Church where he was a clerk for many years. He loved his church and his church family. Randy loved spending time with his brother and sisters in Christ and worshiping the Lord and Savior with them.

Randy had a beautiful voice, and he often led his church in the "lining" of hymns. He is warmly remembered with his rendition of "The Old Coat and the New". His rich baritone voice would fill each church he visited with rejoicing and praise.

I can still hear his beautiful voice singing, "Now this coat just suits me, it keeps me so warm. It's good in the winter, It's good in the storm. My Savior has dressed me in garments so rare. He filled me with glory, His image I'll bear."

Randy's passing left a huge hole in our lives. He is deeply missed each day. I know he is resting in the arms of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Someone recently said that he had just out-run us, this is true. He loved his family and all of his many friends, openly and with his whole heart.

MARK CAUDILL

Mark Caudill, age thirty-four, of Jeremiah, Kentucky, was born on September 21, 1984 and he passed away on Tuesday, April 30, 2019 at the Hazard Appalachian Regional Healthcare Center. Mark was the son of Ernie and Janie Pridemore Caudill. Mark was preceded in death by Paternal Grandparents: Coman and Flarie Caudill and Maternal Grandparents, Mark and Minta Adams Pridemore, several aunts, uncles, and dear classmates.

In lieu of flowers, the family requested a donation to your church or charity in Mark's memory. Mark was born with cerebral palsy but that didn't stop him from influencing many lives without saying a word. He loved Food City, IGA, custards, watching Barney movies and going on road trips. This is why he was known as Windshield Willy.

MARTHA BACK CAUDILL

Martha Back Caudill, age ninety-four, of Wardell, Virginia went to be with the Lord on Tuesday on June 25, 2019 in an Abingdon, Virginia hospital. Born on November 17, 1924 in Blackey, Kentucky, she was a daughter of the late Floyd and Rebecca Dixon Back. She had spent her early life in Kentucky, moving to southwest Virginia in 1967.

She was a member of Mt. Olivet Old Regular Baptist Church in Blackey, Kentucky. Martha never had a harsh word to say about anyone. Her door was always open and she enjoyed cooking and making sure everyone who entered, left with a full stomach and a full heart. She was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend. She always enjoyed having her family together and spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, R.D. Caudill; one infant daughter, Wanda June Caudill; daughter-in-law, Carol Caudill; brothers, Pearl Back, William Back and Wallace Back; sister, Mary Campbell; and several infant siblings.

Survivors include her children, Roger Caudill and wife, June, of Lebanon, Virginia, Earnie Caudill and wife, Becky, of Deel, Virginia, Sally Brown and husband, Mack, of Wardell, Virginia and Carolyn Meadows and husband, Darrell, of Raven, Virginia; nine grandchildren, Daniell Mahalick and husband, Jim, of Frankfort, Illinois, Lori Bentley and husband, Justin, of Cleveland, Tennessee, Steven Lester and wife, Lisa, of Hansonville, Virginia, Amy Haynes of New York, New York, Nathan Caudill and wife, Whitney, of Coeburn, Virginia, Courtni Wyatt and husband, J.D., of Abingdon, Virginia, Jared Brown and wife, Ellen, of Hansonville, Virginia, Jessica Arney of North Tazewell, Virginia and Allison Yates and husband, Ryan, of Cedar Bluff, Virginia; eight great-grandchildren, Matthew Mahalick, Elijah Bentley, Joey Lester, Jacey Lester, Rylie Lester, Clayton Brown, Waylon Brown and Reece Arney; one sister, Hazel Ann Matney of Statesville, North Carolina and several nieces and nephews also survive.

SHIRLEY ANN CLEVINGER

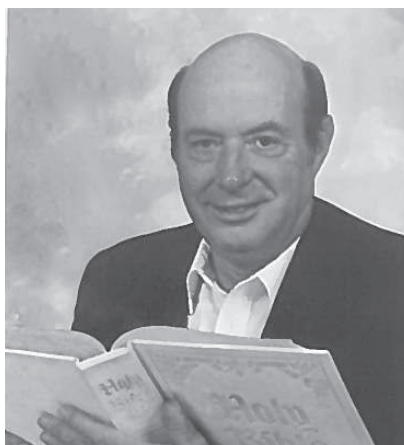

Shirley Ann Lyall-Fleming Clevinger passed away on January 24, 2019 at the home of her niece, Cathy Dotson, who had taken care of her for over a year. Shirley was born on Mullins Ridge on August 19, 1941 to Ivan and Hattie Rose Lyall. She had two brothers, Arlin Lyall and Darrell Lyall; and two sisters, Lois Lyall Moore and Opal Lyall Buchanan, who preceded her in death.

She learned to garden and quilt from her mother. Shirley lived with her parents until she married Palmer Fleming and they resided on Mullins Ridge near her family until he passed away. Shirley then met Ralph Clevinger and was remarried and moved to Caney Ridge.

She loved to garden, can, quilt, and crochet. She loved her fur baby, Corky, she spent many hours outside playing with him.

She never had children of her own but loved and cherished her nieces and nephews. She was very compassionate, loving, and loved to joke with everyone. She was a member of the Indian Bottom Association. She loved going to church with her best friends, Ellen and Phyliss. Above all, she loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Shirley will always be remembered for her beautiful smile, her kindness, and her love for every living thing. Our hearts are broken, but we know she is in the arms of Jesus.

GARY DONALD COMPTON

Gary Donald Compton, known to many as “Pap”, was born on September 20, 1954, to Omery Donald and Juanita Williams Compton and passed from this life on March 5, 2019. He was married on August 23, 1973, to Beulah Lee Slone Compton. They were blessed with three wonderful children, Stacy Dawn Shannon (Scott), Tina Marie Mosley (Oscar), and Amanda Leigh Clark (Doug).

Gary was the eldest of four children, Rhoda (Butch) Paige, Joey (Regina) Compton, and Charlotte (Eddie) Shelton. Growing up in Price, Kentucky, he spent many years making memories with his family and classmates. He reflected often about the good times they had and always had a story to tell about childhood. Being raised in a Christian family, he was introduced to God at young age.

Gary labored hard to provide for his family, often working long hours in the coal mines with his Dad for years. He later left the mines and began a thirty-year career with Columbia Gas. While working for Columbia, he met many new friends along the way. Dad enjoyed cooking lunch several times a week for his fellow workers. He was always thankful after he retired when his fellow workers would stop and visit him. Even while in the hospital, many of his friends came by and checked on him.

In October, 1981, Gary gave his life to Jesus and began his journey as a soldier in God’s Army. As an honored servant, he helped lead many people throughout their walk to salvation. There was never a moment pass by that Gary would not find the opportunity to express the love he had for Christ. As the moderator of the Left Beaver Regular Baptist Church, Brother Gary served his congregation with integrity and character.

He loved spending time with his family and friends, but his grandchildren were the light of his life. Kailey Dawn Shannon, Kamryn Brook Shannon, Austin Matthew Clark, and Addison Baylee Clark were truly blessed to have him as their Pap. As a grandparent, he went above and beyond to make certain they each knew how much he loved them. Whether it was preparing them dinner, attending their events, or creating them a park inside his home, Pap took pride in being by their side. Although they will miss him greatly, they know his suffering has ended and he is using his beautiful voice once again to sing for our Master.

BONNIE JEAN CORNETT

On April 2, 1925, Bonnie Jean was born to Goodloe and Mariah Williams Smith. Bonnie was the third of five daughters in her family. Gladys was the oldest, then Geneva, Bonnie, Edna, and the youngest was Anna Lois.

When Bonnie was about fifteen years old, she met a local boy named Truby Cornett. They dated for some time but soon he was drafted into the Army. This was during World War II. He was wounded and returned home to recover. After he was discharged from the Army, Mom and Dad were married on May 2, 1947.

On March 21, 1948, a daughter was born to Bonnie and Truby. She was to be their only child, and I am that child. My name is Janelle Cornett Johnson, and I can say without a doubt, that I was very blessed to have these two people as my parents.

Mom was a stay-at-home mom so she was always there when I came home from school and also when

I wanted to talk about my day.

I later married Larry Johnson, we had two children, Larry Dustin and Shannon Nicole, and in 1988, Paige Maggard became part of our family.

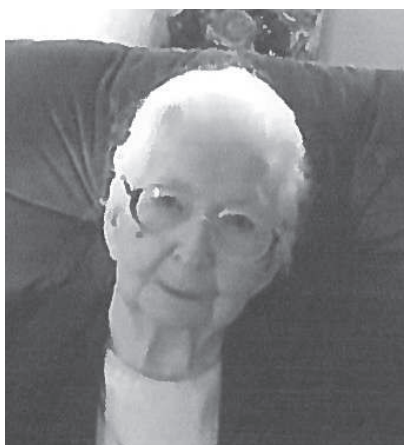

On February 11, 1992, Dad went home to Heaven. It was very hard for Mom to go on without him, but God gave her the strength she needed. She spent her days enjoying her family and doing the things she loved, like mowing grass, gardening and taking care of her dogs.

Mom passed from this life on January 25, 2019. She was ninety-three years and ten months old. On April 2, 2019, she would have been ninety-four. God has blessed us all by allowing us to have her in our lives for almost ninety-four years. She is survived by her daughter, Janelle Johnson; her grandsons, Larry Dustin and his wife, Darlene, and Paige Maggard and his wife, Cindy; granddaughter, Shannon Nicole; and three great grandchildren, Ethan Joseph Johnson, Noah Nathaniel Johnson, and Adison Paige Maggard.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Truby Cornett, in 1992 and her son-in-law, Larry Johnson, in 2017.

Mom, we love and miss you so much, but we know Heaven has gained an Angel. We all hope to be with you, Dad, and Larry someday.

GOLDIE BLAIR CORNETT

Goldie Blair Cornett, age ninety-nine, was born on December 24, 1918 and passed away on Friday, December 7, 2018 at the Whitesburg Appalachian Regional Healthcare Center. Goldie was the daughter of the late James and Annie Back Blair.

She was the widow of Coy Cornett. Surviving Goldie is one son, James Clinton “Bud” Cornett and wife, Nancy, of Hallie; three daughters, Walena Breeding of Lexington, Aloda Breeding and husband, Darrell, of Lexington, and Arizona Tolliver and husband, Howard, of Lexington; six grandchildren; and ten great grandchildren.

Goldie was preceded in death by a daughter, Winona Minor, and a son, Jeffrey Cornett.

Although our Mom wasn’t baptized until 2010, she was always a person of strong faith, trusting and following Jesus as her Lord and Savior. Mom placed her membership at the Hurricane Gap Church, where her son belonged. She was baptized in July, 2010 by Elder Charles Shepherd, Elder Elwood Cornett and her son, Bud Cornett.

We miss her terribly but it gives our hearts great comfort knowing that she is in Heaven with other loved ones.

ALMA SLONE CRAFT

I will attempt to write the obituary of a dear friend and loving mother. She was born on March 10, 1925 and left this world March 11, 2019, singing praises to her Lord. She was born into the home of David and Ida Mosley Slone. Mom grew up during the Great Depression. There was not much money in her home, but it was full of love. This love for family followed her all her life. She married Mayo Craft on October 25, 1952. Later in life she felt the need for a Savior and was saved and baptized at the Mount Olive Church in the New Salem Association and took her membership to Reynolds Fork Church in February, 1992. She was a faithful and hardworking member the rest of her life.

She told me a few days before she left this world that it would be great if Jesus came and took her home on her birthday. The day after her ninety-fourth birthday, she got her wish. Mom left this world singing her favorite song, "Take My Hand Precious Lord".

She was preceded in death by husband, Mayo Craft; parents, David and Ida Mosley Slone; sons, Arlie Craft, Charles Craft, Ward Allen Craft and Mike Staley Craft; daughters, Linda Sue Slone and Aileen Blair; grandson, Marty Joe Blair; granddaughter, Patricia Blair; brothers, Oscar Slone and Wayne Slone; and sister, Zella Wadell.

She is survived by sons, Claude Craft, Nelson Craft and Dean Craft; daughters, Pamela Compton, Patsy Lynne Sexton and Anna Maria Smith; special daughters-in-law, Peggy Craft and Debbie Craft; brother, Barkley Slone; sisters, Lillian Huff, Lannie Reynolds, Ruth Dobson, Anna Lou Slone, Ellouise Barnett and Laura Coon; also a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren that she loved, each uniquely and immensely.

Mom loved children and would play with her grandchildren and great grandchildren for hours on end. She could also be found on the phone talking to friends and family. She once told me her best friend was Jesus Christ. We will miss her here on earth, but we look forward to seeing her again in Heaven.

MERLENE DAY

Merlene Davis Day, age eighty-one, of Roxana, Kentucky, passed away on Thursday, August 15, 2019 at The Greg & Noreen Wells Hospice Care Center in Hazard, Kentucky. Merlene was a wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend to many. She was the daughter of the late Thurston and Maxie Whitaker Davis. She is survived by her husband of almost sixty-two years, Doyle Day; twin daughters, Cecelia Whitaker (George) and Amelia Fields both of Roxana; one son, Kevin Day (Wendy) of Whitesburg; and daughter-in-law, Teresa Day. Also surviving are seven grandchildren, Travis Whitaker (Leighann) of Roxana, Christopher Whitaker (Brooke) of Whitesburg, Amanda Hall (Jason) of Hazard, Megan Perkins (Raymond) of Roxana, Victoria Day of Cornettsville, Larry "LKD"

Day of Whitesburg and Rocky Day of Whitesburg. She also leaves behind five great-grandchildren, Drew and Isaiah Whitaker, Lilah and Emmie Perkins and Keira Isaac.

Merlene is also survived by one brother, Tom Davis of Columbus, Indiana; three sisters, Jowanda Day (Jim) of Beavercreek, Ohio, Elaine Moore, of Richmond, Kentucky and Brenda Davis of Lexington, Kentucky, and one sister-in-law, Oveta Davis of Scipio, Indiana. Also surviving is her beloved family dog, Lucy.

Merlene was preceded in death by a son, Tim Day, a son-in-law, Andy Fields, a brother, Jim Davis and sister-in-law, Donna Davis.

Merlene worked many years as a bookkeeper for several coal companies and retired from MCHC in 2003. She was a long time member of the Letcher County Historical and Genealogical Society. She also was a very active member of the Pine Mountain Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Merlene was a faithful member since 2004 and served as Treasurer, Registrar and was Committee Chair of Genealogical Records and Lineage Research.

ESSIE JOYCE EVERSOLE

Essie Joyce Eversole, age seventy-one, of Chesterton, Indiana passed away Tuesday, November 8, 2016 from cancer. She was born on January 11, 1945, along with her twin brother, Jasper Halcomb, to her parents, Jasper and Essie Halcomb of Cornettsville, Kentucky.

Essie married Ronnie Eversole on March 11, 1964 in Virginia. This union bore two sons, Stephen (wife, Collette) and Kevin (wife, Deborah) Eversole, both of Indiana. She and Ronnie were happily married for over fifty-two years. She was also the wonderful grandmother to three grandchildren. Essie joined the Old Regular Baptist Church in the 1970's and attended any time that she could, she very much loved her church.

Throughout her life, she was a hard worker, and did everything she could to help improve the lives of her and her family. When she wasn't working, she loved raising a garden in her spare time.

There was hardly ever a time that she did not have a smile on her face, she loved her family and loved her Lord.

Essie is resting in the Angelcrest Cemetery in Valparaiso, Indiana.

PINA GIBSON

Pina Gibson was a valued member of her community. She was a kind and caring neighbor to every person in McRoberts, where she lived most of her life. She was born on April 8, 1921, making her ninety-seven years old. She was the widow of Ed Gibson. They were married over fifty years and raised twelve children together.

She was a member of the McRoberts Old Regular Baptist church where she attended for many years, as long as her health permitted.

Throughout the years, she enjoyed many hobbies, from turning the ground and planting seeds to stringing the beans and canning or pickling everything that she grew. She loved to garden; she grew it, cooked it and shared it with the neighbors. She also loved to quilt, whether she was quilting at the senior citizen center with her friends or quilting quietly at home, she loved it. She spent many hours creating beautiful quilts for her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. When she heard that someone was getting married or expecting a baby, she would get started on "their" quilt. These are now considered treasures by anyone who happens to be in possession of one.

Pina was famous for making homemade fudge on Halloween. It was a tradition in McRoberts for well over forty years. What started out as a simple “trick or treat” in the beginning turned into “trick or treat and my Dad and Papaw would like a piece too.” Just like her, this will be sorely missed.

She had an uncanny ability to, on a very limited income, feed the multitudes. There was always a meal to be had by anyone entering her home, not eating was really not an option.

She was dedicated to her family and made each child, grandchild, niece, nephew or cousin feel special. Many have claimed to be her favorites, but we all know who those are.

Pina loved hummingbirds, flowers, hard candy, sour gummies, strawberry ice cream cones, fresh strawberries and ripe peaches. Reminiscing was a favorite past time. She has handed down many stories, words of wisdom and songs that have been long forgotten by the world. One of her favorite sayings was “self-brag is half-scandal”. There is a lot of wisdom in that.

In a world of takers, Pina Gibson was a giver. A giver of meals, happy stories, sound advice, hugs and quick witted jokes but most of all, she was a giver of love. She loved her Lord and Savior first and foremost, but her family was the reason she lived.

ROGER GIBSON

Elder Roger Gibson, of Viper, Kentucky, was born on January 15, 1957 to Chester and Martha Lee Stacy Gibson. He passed away on November 15, 2018 at the Hazard ARH, making his stay here on earth sixty-one years and ten months.

Roger was preceded in death by his father, Chester Gibson; his mother, Martha Lee Stacy Gibson; two brothers, Willis and Chester, Jr.; two sisters, Jewellene Centers and Sharon Mullins; one half-sister, Tammy Gibson; and his grandparents, Charlie and Polly Gibson and Norman and Nancy Stacy.

Roger lost his Mom at the age of 13 and lived with different relatives after that. He was a football player at East Noble High School in Kendallville, Indiana. He was living with one of his uncles in Viper, Kentucky when he met the love of his life, Elizabeth. They were married on May 8, 1975. Roger and Elizabeth welcomed their first child, Chrystal, on August 13, 1976. He started working at Faulkner’s Garage in Hazard, Kentucky two months after Chrystal was born. While he was there he held several positions; he started out as a mechanic and later became the Service Manager. He then moved on to become the Parts Manager. He retired from Faulkner’s in 1998.

Roger joined the Rose of Sharon Church in May, 1979. He was baptized in June, 1979. He was so blessed in the Lord and felt that he was called to preach. He stood for the first time on the first Saturday night in July, 1982 at the Poor Fork Church. Roger traveled many, many miles to churches in Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Virginia. He was the moderator of the Friendship Church, the Big Creek Church and the Chester Hogg Memorial Church. He was the assistant moderator of the Little Zion Church where he held his membership. He loved serving the Lord and he loved all of his church family so much. He tried his best to guide people and teach them the wonderful word of God.

Roger was a devoted husband, father and member of the Indian Bottom Association. He had so many friends both outside the church and inside. He always said that he had two families, his relatives and the church family.

Roger is survived by his loving wife, Elizabeth; his daughter, Chrystal and her husband, Kenneth (who he called Fred), of Viper, Kentucky; three brothers, Eddie Gibson of Indiana, Earl and Nadine Gibson of Neon, Kentucky and Jeff and Beth Gibson of Leburn, Kentucky; two sisters, Carolyn and Jack Beavers of Nicholasville, Kentucky and Georgina Howell of Leburn, Kentucky; four sisters-in-law, Ella Faye Lawson, Donna and Danny Campbell, Sandy and Matthew Ritchie and Margie Gibson; three brothers-in-law, Albert and Paula Mullins, Donna and Danny Campbell, Paul Mullins and Harrison Mullins; special parents, Harlan and Betty Eldridge of Somerset, Kentucky; and a host of nieces and nephews. He also had three special traveling church brothers that joined him on his many journeys, Emory Caudill, Ross Wright and Jerry Caudill.

His passing left a hole in many hearts. He was loved by so many. We find peace in knowing that he has gone on to his Heavenly Home where he will suffer no more.

JOHN HENRY HALL

With the help of the Lord, we will attempt to write the obituary of John Henry Hall. On October 22, 1932, a son was born into the home of the late Joshua and Dora Mullins Hall. He would be called John Henry. He was one of eleven children. He passed from this life on October 4, 2018, making his stay on this earth eighty-five years, eleven months and thirteen days.

When John Henry grew up, he met and married the love of his life, Fannie Noble Hall. To this union was born nine children. Surviving him are sons, Carl D. Hall, Joshua Hall and Jeffrey Allen (Judy) Hall; daughters, Dora Mae (Ted) Collins, Benita (Bill) Collins, Opal Jean Hall and Mary Bedwell; one brother, Hargus Hall; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; along with a host of nephews, nieces, family and friends to mourn his passing.

Preceding him in death are his parents, Joshua and Dora Hall; wife, Fannie Hall; sons, Bobby Hall and Phillip Hall; daughters-in-law, Kathy Casebolt and Freida Sizemore Hall; granddaughter, Jamie Noble; brothers, Linville, Herman, Virgil and Duanne Hall; and sisters, Oma Ritchie, Herma Reynolds, Earlean Johnson, Martha Owens and Stella Mae Bailey.

John provided well for his family. He worked hard to make sure they had plenty to eat and wear. John and Fannie were good parents and taught us to respect our parents and the right way to do things. Later in life he saw a need for the Lord and after many days and nights, the Lord forgave him and he joined the Happy Home Church in May of 1995 and was baptized by Brothers Alger Mullins and Duane Hall. He and Fannie were faithful members until they could not come anymore. John was sick for a long time. He loved his Church and the brothers and sisters of the church.

Dad, we kids love you very much and we will miss you but we look forward to seeing you and Mom again someday. We feel our loss is truly Heaven's gain.

SHARON HALL

Sharon Irene Bailey Collins Hall, age sixty-nine, went to her Heavenly home on Wednesday, August 28, 2019. She passed away at home with the love of her life, Hershel “Jimmy” Hall, at her side. Sharon was born to the late Grover and Ruby (C.B. Smith) Bailey in McDowell, Kentucky on July 13, 1950. She was the third of five children. She is survived by each of her siblings, Larry and Lola Bailey of Willard, Ohio, Sue Bailey of McDowell, Kentucky, Glenita and Tim Sawyer of Crestview Hills, Kentucky and Renetta and Dwayne Slone of McDowell, Kentucky. Along with her husband and siblings, she is survived by her fur baby, Pandora; step-brothers and sisters, Gary (Vicky) Smith, Wayne (Paula) Smith, C.B. Jr. (Renee) Smith, Janet (Jim) Frazier, Joan (C.J.) Caudill and Gayle Newsome; along with a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and great-great nieces and nephews.

She married Clinton Ray Collins when she was nineteen years old and together they shared a son, Clinton Ray Collins, Jr., known to all of us as Punky. Motherhood was Sharon’s true calling and she loved him dearly. When Punky was only two, his father passed away leaving him and Sharon behind. Moving forward, she put all of her energy into Punky and being the best mother that she could be. Although the two were very close, they knew that something was missing. When Punky was only four years old, he broke out his piggybank and headed to church. He was on a mission and decided that night to buy himself a stepdad and he and his mommy had their sights set on a handsome dark haired man. That man, Jimmy Hall, would later prove to be the missing puzzle piece. It was in April of 1975, that Sharon and Jimmy got married and the three became a family.

Sharon loved attending Punky’s sporting events and they loved fishing together as a family. Unfortunately after a tragic accident in 1988, Punky passed away at the young age of seventeen. This moment went on to define Sharon. She often spoke of how hard it was to move on after losing her only child. Her faith in God and the love of her family helped to sustain her and she knew she had the promise of one day seeing him again. Knowing that, she waited her whole life to reunite with him is the one thing that’s made losing her easier for all of us.

In the years that followed, she picked up many hobbies and developed numerous talents. She could sew, knit, crochet, cross stitch and quilt. She enjoyed scrapbooking and collecting photos of family members and loved puzzles and computer games. If you’ve visited the house recently, then she definitely told you about her love of April the Giraffe. Her rescue dog, Pandora, gave her much joy and she loved having her by her side those last five years.

As we wrote this we realized we all have different versions of Aunt Sharon that we remember. Whether it was the florist Aunt Sharon that loved fishing, the Aunt Sharon that was super crafty and loved crime shows, or the Aunt Sharon that ran a tanning salon with her sister Sue and loved jewelry, makeup and super blonde hair, one thing is for sure, every version of Aunt Sharon was fun and she loved U.K. basketball. She was a warm shoulder to cry on, she was a listening ear and she was a confidant to all of us. In the past few years, her body wasn’t able to keep up with her but she still remained a steady part of our lives. Even while she was restricted to her home, we knew she was in good hands because our Uncle Jimmy took such excellent care of her up until a few days ago when she laid her head down for her final nap.

We don’t quite know what our world will look like without her in it but what we do know is she left us with so many memories, so much love and a version of her we will hold dearest in our hearts forever. Wait until morning comes and we will meet again, Sharon.

DAVID ALLEN HAMPTON

With much sadness, I am once again doing something I never thought I would, having to write about the death of one of my children.

Our youngest son, David Allen, was born October 26, 1979 and died on Friday, June 28, 2019 of a massive heart attack. He was disabled, and had been for quite some time, but was unable to get any disability at the time of his death.

David is survived by his parents, Relon and Adeline Hampton; one brother, Bernard, at home; one sister, Wendy Thornsberry and husband, Timothy, of Premium, Kentucky; his fiancée, Shyla Collins, of Red Fox; and two daughters also survive, Harley and Stephanie.

David was the adventurous type and saw no fear in anything.

CORSIE HIBBARD

Corsie “Johnnie” Hibbard, age ninety-five, was born on May 25, 1924. She departed this life to be with her Lord on June 3, 2019. She was a faithful member of the Big Leatherwood Old Regular Baptist Church. She was known to her family as Mamaw and she was a beautiful example of Christ. Even though she only had a fourth-grade education, she read her Bible daily. When her vision failed, and she could no longer read, she would listen to the Bible on CD. She lived out the faith, always reaching out to help others in need, and provide for those who couldn’t. Mamaw would always have supper waiting on you and always wanted to feed all those who came to visit. She loved ALL. Mamaw was a beacon of hope, light and love, in each life she touched.

She leaves behind: two sons, Oscar Hibbard and Dan (Deb) Hibbard; two daughters, Sue (Raleigh) Williams and Joan (Danny) Huff; five grandchildren, Lisa (Andy) Walters, John (Lori) Thompson, Shawn (Michelle) Williams, Chasity (Todd) McIntyre and Dalton Hibbard; seven great grandchildren, Brent Perkins, Reagan Furman, Will Thompson, Madison Hughes, Whitney Huff, Makynsi Pray, and Rani McIntyre; and two great-great grandchildren, Ledger Hughes and Neely Furman.

“May she rejoice now and forever.”

LINDA JANE KING HOGG

Linda Jane King Hogg was born on October 12, 1947 in Cincinnati, Ohio and passed away on March 14, 2019. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother, and will be forever loved. Linda was a member of The Northern New Home Church in Goshen, Ohio.

She is survived by her husband, Bobby E. Hogg; daughter, Angela C. Hogg Mason; son, Donald W. Hogg; three grandchildren, Cevin M. Hogg, Bryce A. Hogg and Cailan J. Mason; and brothers and sisters, Jim King, Dennis King, Helen King Jeffers, and Sherry King.

VESTEEN HOLIMAN

Mom was born on July 7, 1931 and she passed away on February 1, 2018. It has been a year since you left us, Mom. It proves to us that God takes the best. On this earth, you lived and served God faithfully. By God's words you taught us from the cradle to the grave. The Holy Bible and God's words you lived by, set an example for all of us kids to follow while your lifetime was here on Earth. By God's mercy and grace, you raised seven boys and one daughter, teaching us love, joy and peace, and Christian values we live by.

You said God's "Golden Rules" will stand the testament of time. The Bible was each of our road maps to follow in our lifetime. Mom, the prettiest flowers that ever bloom in our hearts, they're blooming still for you. Each memory, we had with you, we cherish them today, even more now. We can never honor you enough for all you have done for each of your children. We miss you daily.

I look out at the blue sky, the sun set over the mountains, green valleys, where flowers bloom. Every day, the things we see and do make us think of you: a crystal vase, a piece of lace, quilts, old black and white photographs, pictures of your mom and dad hanging on the wall, the old family Bible, your favorite flower, songs of Zion and the Old Regular Baptist hymnal song books you sung to us from so many times down through the years.

Her church was her life and her children. She loved going back home to the mountains she called home. She loved getting family together. She cooked a big dinner to take to Horse Mill Point Cemetery for Decoration Day where they've got a place there in a shed where they eat at the foot of the hill. Then, they set and talked for a couple of hours or so, eating and catching up on all the family. They come from Tennessee, Florida, Ohio and all over, to meet there, gather, and decorate graves, making it an all day thing. We celebrated all family members that had passed on and the memories we had of them, which is the treasures of life. Vesteen said that was what it was all about, honor, respect, love and family. She said "Children, we don't know who will not be with us next year. An empty chair, an empty plate, that's a part of life. We all have to live and die. It's not how we start in life, it's where we end up in eternity. Give roses to someone while they're living by showing love and kindness. God will bless you, Child." Now we must carry on without you, Mom, still doing the good work you've done. The dinner won't be the same, but, oh, what stories we will sit and tell about our beloved mother, cherished memories our mother taught us, her children, so each of them has special stories to tell, the years of her life's legacy, she passed down to all of them. Our Mom was a virtuous woman. The Bible speaks of virtuous women names being more precious than rare rubies. A Godly woman, she lived every day like the Bible told her to.

Her life was a testament to us and all of the world. What I loved most about my mother was her life she lived daily in front of her children. We take time out to honor our mother, we love and respect her Christian values most of all. What she taught us is a testament in it's own. This year has been rough and hard on all of us children. We lost so much but, oh, what Heaven gained. We were truly blessed to have such a loving mother. I can almost hear Mom singing with the Angels. She said, "It's not good-bye, I'm just sleeping, waiting for us all to have that great homecoming day in Heaven." Mother will be waiting with Jesus to welcome her children into Heaven on God's golden shores, singing with the Angels. Mom taught us if we live right for God, Heaven is waiting. So we know we'll see Mom again.

Vesteen was the daughter of the late Steve and Verna Lee Caudill Adams. Surviving are six sons, Danny Holliman of Irvine, Bill Holliman of Harlan, Mike Holliman of Irvine, Johnny Holliman of Winchester, Phillip Holliman of McKee and Dwayne Holliman of Mooresburg, Tennessee; one daughter, Verna Lee Green of Georgia; one brother, Ronnie Adams of Johnson City Tennessee; along with a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one son, Ernest.

BEATRICE GRACE ISON

Our loving wife and mother, Beatrice Grace Halcomb Ison, known as “Bat” to her friends and family, went to Heaven on February 19, 2018, at the age of eighty-nine. Surrounded by her loving family, Mommy passed away as quietly and humbly as she lived. Beatrice Grace was born on September 13, 1929 to the late Steve and Ritter Campbell Halcomb at Big Branch, Kentucky.

She is survived by her husband of seventy years, Bee Ison. Bee and Bat were married on August 29, 1947 at Whitesburg, Kentucky. The two were blessed with five children, Mona Watts (Mickey) of Lexington, Kentucky, Glenna Huff (James) of Cornettsville, Kentucky, Greg “Big-un” Ison (Patrice Lavonne) of Cornettsville, Kentucky, Dedria “Dede” Turner (Greg) of Nicholasville, Kentucky and Lela Stevens (Larry) of Nicholasville, Kentucky. They have seven grandchildren, Carey, Allen, Becky, Christie, Jamie, Caleb and Cheyenna; and fifteen great grandchildren.

As members of the Big Leatherwood Regular Baptist Church, Dad and Mom served as a Deacon and Deaconess for many years, being the oldest surviving Deaconess at the time of her passing. She was an active member of the Church until she became ill. She loved her church and her many church friends she made though-out the years, with whom they would take fishing trips, enjoy trips to the Great Smokey Mountains, visit other churches and sing.

Mommy lived most her life on Little Leatherwood in the home she and Daddy made. She was a wonderfully loving wife and mother. She always let us know how much she loved us and how proud she was of us. She would tell Greg, “all they will find is a piece of your britches one of these days up there fooling with those bears”, but she loved to show pictures of him with his baby bears. Mommy depended on Glenna as she grew older and thought she could do anything; she would tell us “Glenna can do it”. She never stopped introducing Dede and Lela as “the twins”, always being her babies. Mommy was so happy to see all five of her children baptized.

Mona felt so blessed to have Mommy stay with her for the last few months of her life. Although Mommy missed Daddy and her home very much (she continued to say she was going back home until the end), she did enjoy getting to know more of her great grandchildren, and they loved her. Granny, as they called her, always had a big smile and a piece of candy for them. She especially loved seeing and holding her babies. She was so very proud of all of them.

We miss her so much, but we know she is with Jesus. When in pain, she would call for Jesus, saying “I need help that only comes from You”. She is not in pain anymore.

BOBBY JAMES ISON

Bobby James Ison, eighty-six, of Jeremiah, Kentucky passed away Wednesday, May 22, 2019, at the Hospice Care Center in Hazard, KY. Bob was born on June 1, 1932, to Ed and Martha Watts Ison.

Surviving are his wife of sixty-six years, Anis Ison; his brother, Edward Ison; and his sister, Mary Carolyn (Tony) Blair. He was preceded in death by three brothers, Lilly Ison, Manus Ison, and Wayne Ison.

Bob graduated from Kingdom Come High School and Morehead State University. He was a retired Industrial Arts teacher in Dayton, Ohio.

Bob cherished his wife, Anis. He gave attention to her needs and cares. He was steadfast and faithful in each high and low that they encountered during their many years together. During his last few days in the hospital, he would tell Anis to “Go on home and take a nap and rest.”

Bob was a U.S. Army veteran who loved his country and stood firm for its values. He was an avid outdoorsman who liked to hunt and fish and was a member of the Little Shepherd Chapter of the Wild Turkey Federation. He enjoyed UK sports, lemon pie, and fried apples. He loved to take drives and enjoy the beauty of nature. He was an encourager to those he met, and he demonstrated a positive attitude in life. During his time in the hospital, he took a personal interest in the doctors and nurses who cared for him and would frequently ask them questions about their work and lives. He captured their hearts as he did the hearts of all of us who knew and loved him for years.

Bob had a spirit of compassion for others and always wanted to help them with acts of kindness. He ended his conversations with “You call me if you need anything.” He was a Shriner, and for many years he helped transport children throughout Eastern Kentucky to the Shriner’s Hospital in Lexington. He worked diligently for these children. This brought him much joy!

Bob was cooperative and agreeable. During times of stress he would often say, “Keep calm.” His actions reflected that God’s spirit lived within him. He was a peacemaker.

Bob possessed a strong Christian faith and was a member of the Cedar Grove Church at Hallie, Kentucky. He loved his church and was always in attendance as long as he was able. His priority was to serve God with integrity and honor. He tried to live by the Word of God and encouraged others to do the same. He kept his Bible by his side as he sat on the couch relaxing or visiting with others. He strove to represent God both in and out of church. He was a humble man and was thankful for all that God had given him. He freely shared his testimony with others.

Bob had an amazing confidence in his personal relationship with Christ. Even during the darkest days of his illness, he demonstrated an admirable spiritual calmness. He repeatedly said to others, “Don’t worry about me. I’ve had a good life, and I know where I am going.”

Each of us who knew and loved Bob will miss him beyond words. We rejoice, however, that he is now reunited with his cherished family members that have gone on before him. We give praise that he is now in the presence of the Lord that he so dearly loved. May Bob’s life and character be our inspiration. May each of us live in a way that would make him proud. May we all strive to meet him again someday.

GERALDINE CAUDILL ISON

“Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.” Proverbs 31:28-31

We would like to tell everyone about our precious Mother who left this world to be in the arms of Jesus on October 12, 2018. She was eighty seven years of age at her passing. She was born on March 28, 1931 to Hubard and Vivan Caudill. They preceded her in death. Her husband was Rodney Ison, who also preceded her in death. They were married on September 5, 1949 and had sixty seven years of love and happiness.

Their marriage produced four sons: Ronald Eugene (Susan Calhoun) Ison of Jeremiah, Kentucky, Michael Derek (Susan Dixon) Ison of Lexington, Kentucky, Kevin James (Nellie Cornett) Ison of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Timothy Miles (Marquetta Brown) Ison of Hazard, Kentucky. She loved her sons and was very proud of them and their accomplishments. This union also gave her nine grandchildren and from those grandchildren she received fifteen great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Geraldine surrendered her life to the Lord and joined the Dixon Memorial Old Regular Baptist Church. When her husband, Rodney, surrendered to the Lord and joined the Blair Branch Old Regular Baptist Church, Geraldine followed him and moved her membership. She loved the Lord and her church family. She served the Lord and her church until her passing.

We will miss her, but we know she is forever in the presence of the Lord. We know that we have another reason to go to Heaven. After her passing, we found a copy of the following poem, she had written “I like this” on the top of it. We think of this as her goodbye from our precious Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother and Great-Great Grandmother. Love you, Mamaw.

*Somewhere the sun is shining
Thru mists of hazy blue
Somewhere there is no sorrow
And hearts are happy and true.*

*Somewhere there is no parting
Somewhere there is no pain
Somewhere loved ones are waiting
To greet us once again.*

*And tho' beyond our understanding
May this set your heart at rest
Somewhere in all His wisdom
A loving God knows best!*

JANICE ROSE JACOBS

Janice Rose Jacobs was born March 8, 1956 to the late James and Nola Jacobs. She passed away on February 6, 2019, surrounded by her family, at the Hazard ARH.

Mom was loved by so many throughout her life. She had five sisters and five brothers and a host of nieces and nephews. She was a stay at home mom to six wonderful children, Jonathan, Shawn, Trish, Lee, Justin and Janet. Mom would always say life wasn't easy raising all of us kids but she loved every minute of it and would do it all again. She always said that even though we were all grown up, she still considered us her babies. She was a proud mamaw to five grandchildren, Blake, Hunter, Khloe, Grayson and McKenzie.

Mom was an old fashioned Christian who enjoyed going to church. She had so much love and faith in the Lord and His plan for her life. Mom let her Christian light shine for everyone. She enjoyed reading her Bible and listening to church songs. Mom would describe herself as a simple lady, she didn't like fancy things. She was always humble and kind. She had the sweetest smile and eyes that sparkled with love. She enjoyed wearing her Levi skirts and white Kedds tennis shoes. She loved wearing seasonal sweaters and her grandma t-shirts. She enjoyed trips to Walmart and shopping at Goodwill. Her favorite place to eat was Chinese. She enjoyed visiting her children and talking on the phone. She loved going to her sister Vicky's house during the day. She always said if she wanted a good cup of coffee, she could count on her to make it.

Mom loved waking up early to enjoy her Maxwell House coffee and the sound of her grandfather clock. She loved watching WLJC. She always said she was a morning person. She found peace and enjoyment in cleaning house and cooking for her family. She enjoyed rocking on her front porch; listening to the sound of her wind chimes and watching the seasons change. She loved watching the trees bloom out in the spring, the leaves change colors in the fall and a pretty wet snow fall in the winter. She loved the rain.

Mom's favorite holiday was Christmas. She loved how that time of year brought everyone together. She enjoyed watching the old fashioned Christmas plays the grade schools would have. She enjoyed listening to her Tammy Wynette and Alabama Christmas albums. She loved to decorate her house in snowmen and her Christmas tree in red birds. Mom would always light up her old fashioned nativity scene outside her house. She believed that gave everyone that passed by a chance to remember the true meaning of Christmas. She loved fixing Christmas breakfast, her homemade biscuits and gravy were the best.

Mom was an animal lover. She had many special pets throughout her life that she loved dearly, Muffin, Petree, Mittens, Grace, Harley, Sam, Lady, Tom, Belle, Cassie and Addie.

We know our life here on earth will never be the same without her. She was the glue that held our family together. She was such a big part of our everyday life. She was a wonderful mom and our best friend. She left us with many great memories that we will cherish forever. She told us she will never be far away, she will live in our hearts forever. Rest in Peace, Mom, we will meet again. We all love you and miss you dearly.

REMEMBER YOUR MOM

*When your mother dies
It doesn't matter how old you are.
You still feel like an orphan because
You've lost your guiding star.
She's the one you've always turned to
Whenever anything went wrong.*

*She's the one who cleaned your skinned knees
And chased nightmares away with a song.
She was there to celebrate
All your important days with you,
Like birthdays and holidays,
And your very first day of school.
It was easy to take her for granted
Because you knew she'd always be there,
Until the day that she wasn't,
And you discovered life truly wasn't fair.
So each Mother's Day take a moment,
To remember the best things about her,
Like her gentle hands and open arms,
And how close the two of you were.
And you can be sure she's in Heaven
Thinking of you on this day above any other.
That's because you are the wonderful reason
That she became a mother.*

JAMES PHILLIP McCLOUD

James Phillip McCloud, age eighty, went to his Heavenly Home on July 24, 2019. James was born in Drift, Kentucky on August 13, 1938 to the late Abner and Nealie Gibson McCloud.

James married Rosa Lee Moore on May 4, 1966 at Legion, Kentucky. She preceded him in death in May of 1994.

He went to high school at McDowell, worked for Parker Hannifin for thirty-seven years, and he also served our country in the U.S. Army.

James was known for many things, and everyone knew his passion for bluegrass music. He loved to work in his garden, hunting, and fishing. He was well known for his mechanical ability. He and his brother, Stan, ran a service station for several years.

He and Rosa Lee joined the Left Beaver Old Regular Baptist Church sometime in the early seventies.

James was preceded in death by his parents, Abner and Nealie; his wife, Rosa Lee; his sisters, Bernice Rhoton, Betty Jo Caudill, and Ella Lee Matthews; sister-in-law, Anna Sue McCloud; and brother-in-law, Gene Bowen.

He was buried beside his wife, Rosa Lee, at the Jack Hall Cemetery, Ned's Fork, Kentucky.

RITA PAULINE NEWSOME

Rita Pauline Newsome, age sixty-two, of Haysi, Virginia, passed away on January 13, 2019 at Pikeville Medical Center, at Pikeville, Kentucky. She was born in Buchanan County, Virginia. Rita was the daughter of the late Leonard V. Turner and Millie Abigail Woods Turner.

She was preceded in death by two infant sisters, Imogene and Barbara Turner; four brothers, Rufus "R.C." Turner, Eugene "Babe" Turner, James Turner and David Turner; and one grandson, Greyson Coal Street.

Those left to mourn her passing are her husband of eighteen years, Frankie D. Newsome; two daughters, Chrissondra Powitzky and Sharonda (Bobby) Street; one granddaughter, Abby O'Quinn; one sister, Mary Deel; one brother, Hardaway (Norma) Turner; plus several nieces and nephews.

Rita was a 1975 graduate of Haysi High School. She was also a member of the Little David Old Regular Baptist Church. She was last employed as a C.N.A. She loved going camping during the summer. She enjoyed boating and riding her ATV. Rita loved a good laugh and enjoyed talking and "cutting up". She enjoyed and loved spending time with her family and she also enjoyed her church family. She especially adored and loved her granddaughter, Abby. She was very fond of her pets, Otis and Fancy. Another favorite past time was playing games and puzzles on her tablet.

Mom, there are no words to describe the pain and grief that we feel, but we feel you are safe in the arms of Jesus. Rest on, for you have gained your Angel wings. We will hold you in our hearts and memories until we can hold you again in the Glory Land. We will always love you.

GLENNA NAPIER NOBLE

Sister Glenna Napier Noble was born on July 30, 1940 and died November 28, 2018, she was seventy-eight years old.

Sister Glenna had three daughters and was married to Silas Noble, who took good care of her. He made sure she made it to church. Sister Glenna loved her family. She loved the New Bethlehem Church. Most of all she loved the Lord.

She was a very humble person, she only had good things to say about people. She loved to sing for the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We at the church loved to hear her sing. The Lord blessed her good. She was a good and faithful member of the church until the end. The New Bethlehem Church had a great loss, Heaven had a great gain.

SYLVIA ANN OSBORN

Sylvia Ann Jones Osborn of Taylorsville, Indiana was born in Knott County, Kentucky on April 14, 1951 to Colonel and Delilah Jones. She passed away on September 13, 2018.

She was married to Barry Martin on September 30, 1972. They had two children together, Bobby and Dawn. Bobby was born on August 4, 1973 and passed away on August 24, 2018. Dawn was born March 29, 1975 and passed away April 16, 2018. Barry passed away on September 18, 1999.

Sylvia Ann went on to marry Clayton Osborn on December 8, 2001. On October 16, 2016, she joined the Big Creek Church of Old Regular Baptist in Dupont, Indiana and was baptized on November 20, 2016.

She loved going to church and listening to the preachers preach the Bible. A few days before she passed away, she asked her brother, Arley, to sing Amazing Grace for her.

Survivors include her husband, Cliff of Taylorsville, Indiana; three sisters, Matilda Almond of Taylorsville, Indiana, Sarah Smith of Columbus, Indiana, and Matreava Baker of Columbus, Indiana; and four brothers, George Jones of Burkesville, Kentucky, Luther Jones of Allons, Tennessee, Floyd Jones of Hope, Indiana, and Arley Jones of Greensburg, Indiana.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Colonel and Delilah Jones; first husband, Barry Martin; children, Bobby Martin, and Dawn Roberts; grandson, Skylar Green; two sisters, Ruby Amburgey and Mae Jones; and brother, Willard Jones.

We believe she is resting around the throne of God but missed dearly by those left behind.

WILLIAM ELLIS OWENS

William Ellis Owens was born on October 6, 1929, to the late Henry Cleve and Evaline Owens, and departed this life on August 5, 2018. He was the last child of a family of two brothers, Jim Owens and Barney Owens; and eight sisters, Dolly Belcher, Bertha Owens, Altia Bailey, Della O'Quinn, Ethel Yates, Pinky Deel, Imal Fuller, and Maxie Hess.

Daddy was the baby of this family. He loved his Mom and Dad and all his brothers and sisters so much, and they loved him. He was really close to his brother, Barney, who was like a father to him. He went to Barney for any advice that he needed.

Daddy married our mother, Annette, on December 27, 1949. Mom was called away August 29, 2013. They lived a life of love for one another.

Many times I would visit them in the evenings and they would be sitting side by side in their recliners, watching Wheel of Fortune, holding hands. Daddy never was happy after Mom passed. He said he couldn't stay by himself, so I talked it over with my husband, Clayton, and decided that I would go and stay with Dad. I made my home with him for five years and took care of him the best I could. I miss him so bad. Our home will never be the same anymore. I believe Daddy and Mommy are together with Jesus waiting for us children to all be together again.

Daddy and Mommy were the best parents that we children could have asked for. Our home was always filled with love. Dad leaves to mourn his loss two sons, Larry (Barbara) Owens and William (Mary) Ellis Owens Jr.; two daughters, Brenda (Clayton) O'Quinn and Marilyn (Buster) Mullins; six grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. He also leaves a nephew, Scotty Owens, who was like a son to him. Scotty was with us during the time that we needed him, and was such a blessing to the family.

I want to thank all that visited with Dad during his sickness. Daddy's nephew, Chester Yates, and his wife, Lucy, were so good about checking on Daddy and the rest of the family. Also, we would like to thank Daddy's two nephews, Denver and Teddy Bailey, for getting the flag for Daddy's coffin. I could go on and on about Daddy, but I believe the best part is that he made it to that beautiful place called Heaven, and he's resting there now around the throne of God

I miss you, Dad, and I am waiting for the day to be with you and Mom again.

DON PARKER

With the help of the Lord, I will attempt to write the obituary of not only my Dad and my brother in Christ, but also my best friend.

Elder Donald D. "Don" Parker was born on October 28, 1942 to the late William "Bill" and Nova Tackett Parker. He passed away on July 20, 2019 at the Hazard Appalachian Regional Medical Center, following an extended illness.

He is survived by his sons, Don Parker, Jr. (Melinda) of Nippa, Kentucky and William G. "Will" Parker, of McDowell, Kentucky; his sisters, Billie Jeffery (the late Pete), of Milford, Ohio, Patricia Conn (David), of Louisville, Kentucky and Agnes "Jane" Clifton (Kenneth) of Kimmell, Indiana; and his brother, Franklin Parker (Pamela) of Shepherdsville, Kentucky. He was preceded in death by his parents and several brothers and sisters.

After graduating from McDowell High School in 1960, he soon enlisted in the United States Army, where he served for thirteen and one-half years, including one tour in Vietnam. Shortly before being discharged from the United States Army in 1975, he received a calling in a higher powered Army, God's Army. He often preached that in the Army, the leader was always to the rear, away from action, so there was less of a chance of danger, but in God's Army, our Leader remains in the front and we follow him. Dad joined and was baptized at the Old Beaver Old Regular Baptist Church by Elder Mitchell Chaffins and Elder Bill Tackett. Dad loved the Church and went as often as his health would allow, he walked with God. He was a member of the Little Rosa Old Regular Baptist Church at the time of his passing.

Dad served his community for twenty eight years; serving with the Left Beaver Fire Department and Rescue Squad, Martin Fire Department, Mud Creek Fire Department and the Wheelwright Fire Department. He was a retired insurance salesman for Liberty Life Insurance and Kentucky Central Insurance. He was a lifetime member of the DAV Chapter 128 at Minnie, Kentucky and a Kentucky Colonel.

We wish to thank the Little Rosa Old Regular Baptist Church, Nelson-Frazier Funeral Home, Hazard ARH, Eastern Kentucky Veterans Center, the many ministers, family and friends who were there with us during this difficult time. Your prayers, encouragement, stories and love will be cherished forever.

In closing, I will say this; if Dad could talk back to our family and many friends, he would still be telling you of the joy and love there is in serving God. Please seek Jesus before it's too late. To me this was not a good-bye, but I'll see you later, Dad. We traveled many miles together, serving the Lord by visiting other churches. I cherish every trip but one day we'll make one last trip together that we've talked about many times. I can't wait to meet you in the morning.

PATRICIA CAROL PARKS

We are here today to celebrate the life of Patricia Carol Parks, born on June 21, 1943 in Millstone, Kentucky. She was taught by her mother at an early age about the love of Jesus, which she based her whole life around. She wanted everyone she met to know that love too.

Patty joined the Church in 1968 and her desire in life then became to serve her Lord and Savior.

On November 12, 1960 she married Randall Parks. They moved to Indiana to start their life together and in 1967, they moved to Detroit, Michigan. It was in Detroit where she and Randall found their greatest joy when they adopted two children, Penny LeStar and Jeffrey Randall. In 1977, Patty gave birth to a stillborn child, Natasha Charlai.

Patty spent the next twenty eight years living in Michigan, where she raised her children. In 1995, Patty and Randall moved back to Indiana after retiring. She enjoyed going to church, cooking, crocheting, gardening and spending time with her family.

In 2008, she became Nana to Cameron and Mia. They said that she was the best Nana ever. She loved spending every minute possible with them; playing games, going to the zoo, cooking for them and sneaking them candy when Mom and Dad said no.

After the passing of her dearly beloved husband, Randall, she moved back to Michigan to live with her daughter, Penny. She lit up the room with her beautiful smile and when she laughed, the whole world laughed. She touched many lives along her journey. Even though she was very sick herself, she encouraged others to stay strong and keep fighting. Every individual that met her became a better person just by knowing her. Her faith made everyone's faith stronger. She was strong and brave and fought so hard until her last day on earth, March 27, 2019. Her life and testimony speaks louder than any man ever could. Sister Patty was a member of the Northern New Home Church in Goshen, Ohio.

CLAUDINE SHEPHERD

With the help of my Savior, I will try to write the obituary of my beloved sister, Claudine Shepherd, who was born on May 25, 1946 to the late Manis and Naomi Boleyn Shepherd and passed away on May 14, 2019.

After our mother passed away, Claudine became a mother to all of us. She was there for us all the time, and we needed her so bad. Claudine was a worker, she took care of all of us.

Claudine was saved and baptized on April 7, 1996 and she took her membership to the Rock Fork Regular Baptist Church, where she was at the time of her death.

Claudine loved to cook and she really loved to cook for the church. She said her gift from God was to cook for the church. She loved it!

She was sick a lot the last two years. She was in and out of several hospitals during that time. But then on April 16, 2018, she let Hospice start to take care of her. She was not able to go to the doctor every week. I hesitated about that but in the long run I saw that it was the best for her.

Claudine leaves a son, Tim (Robin) Shepherd; three sisters, Mattie (Kermit) Boleyn, Sarah (Arlie) Jackson and Stella (Ancil) Slone; one grandson, Cody (Brittney) Shepherd; one niece, Kelsie; five nephews, Aaron, Riley, Greg, Darrell and Jeff; and two step grandchildren, Cody and Hunter.

Big Granny, as most of us called her, loved the church children, especially Ally, Peyton, Chloe and Penelope. It was her joy to be with them and watch them grow.

There is so much more that I could tell about my loving sister, but what she would want me to say is to tell everyone here today – “If you are not saved, you need to get on your knees and get ready to go to Heaven with me.”

Thank you, Lord, for giving her to us.

Love, Sarah

JAMIE LEE SLONE

Jamie was born on February 17, 1978 to Phillip Lee and Jane Smith Slone at June Buchanan Clinic in Hindman, Kentucky. He was a little squirmy fellow that has brought so much joy to our lives. Jamie passed away on March 2, 2019 at the Hazard ARH, having just turned forty-one years old in February.

Jamie is survived by his dad, Phillip Slone; children, Alexandra Leigh (Lexi) Slone, Natalie Nichole Slone, Caleigh Nickles, Austen Rylee Slone and Dalton Lee Slone; and fiancée, Recca Maynard. He also leaves behind a great host of aunts, uncles, cousins (who were his brothers and sisters) and a host of friends who are surely going to miss him.

He was preceded in death by his precious mom, Jane Smith Slone; his grandparents, General Lee and Jeanette Hall Slone and C.B. and Gertrude Johnson Smith and his step-grandmother, Ruby Smith; uncles, Danny Smith, Tommy Newsome, Jeff M. Slone and Jimmy D. Slone; and one cousin, Dustin Lee Slone.

Jamie was the type of person that everyone wanted to be around, he was always smiling, laughing, cutting up, telling jokes and making everyone laugh. If you were having a bad day, being around Jamie would always cheer you up as he always had something to say, always talking with his hands swinging. That smile was contagious. Jamie never realized just how many friends he had, he would have been amazed.

Jamie suffered from depression for a long part of his life. You would never know it to be around him and hear him telling jokes and laughing. Not a lot of people saw the inside of Jamie, the hurt, pain and suffering. Only the ones he loved really knew how Jamie suffered and how he struggled. Jamie lost his sweet Mom four years ago and never got over the loss of her as she was his anchor, his champion and his biggest fan. In losing her, he lost part of himself.

Jamie loved his Dad and his kids. They did not always see eye to eye a lot but he loved them. We had so many long talks and he always talked about Phillip and his kids and how much he loved them all. He just struggled at times with how to show or tell them just how much he cared. He has told me so many times that his children are the best part of his life, the better part of him.

Jamie had searched for peace; he struggled with so many demons. He prayed so hard and read his Bible and studied. He tried many solutions that failed, suffered so many heartaches and disappointments. On January 28, he gave his whole heart to God and he rejoiced. On February 3, 2019, I attended his baptizing and I have to say that out of all the baptisms that I have witnessed, and that is a great number, his baptizing was one of the prettiest, most heartfelt ones that I've seen. He came out of the water rejoicing, hands lifted toward Heaven and tears rolling down his face. The POWER of God was felt there that day and I truly believe Jamie won the battle. Many people will judge and try you but God is our only judge. His blood covered Jamie and I believe that after all the years of suffering and heartache, Jamie got what he so longed for, peace and to be back with his Mom. He has fought a long, heart breaking, often impossible battle, but I believe his battle is over and he won the victory at last.

Jamie, you stole a big peace of my heart forty-one years ago and that love has endured a lot of joy, a lot of pain and suffering, a lot of me wanting to wear you out but that love was anchored deep in both our hearts and will last the rest of my life. Till we meet again Jamie, I love you bunches.

Aunt Joan

MARY ANN STAMPER

Sister Mary Ann was a great example of love and kindness. She was a faithful and hardworking sister in the Reynolds Fork Church. She had a smile and a laugh that would soften anyone's heart. Mary Ann and husband, Cecil "Teaberry" Stamper, and I became close friends and spent a great deal of time together.

Mary Ann was born on November 7, 1941 into the home of Roy and Beatrice Amburgey Mullins and passed from this life on December 27, 2017. She met and married Cecil "Teaberry" Stamper early in life and to this union was born two sons, Greg (Sherry) Stamper and Rick (Faye) Stamper. She is survived by her sons, Greg and Rick; grandchildren, Danielle (Jon) Davis, Corey (Jaime) Cornett, Chase Stamper, Blake Stamper, Albany (Trevor) Buttrey and Keith Caudill; her great grandchildren; sister, Bernadene Sandlin; and brother, Anthony Collins.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Cecil "Teaberry" Stamper; parents, Roy and Beatrice Amburgey Mullins; sister, Diane Slone; and brother, Leon Collins.

We feel that our loss is Heaven's gain.

MITCHELL DEWAYNE STILTNER

It is with a sad and broken heart I write this obituary of my brother. Mitchell was born to Phillip Stiltner and Opal Kennedy Stiltner on July 16, 1964. He passed away on May 25, 2019. Mitchell was preceded in death by his father, Phillip Stiltner; his brothers, Johnny and Mark; maternal grandparents, John and Olivia Kennedy; and paternal grandparents, Ellis and Hazel Stiltner. Mitchell leaves behind his mother, Opal Jane Kennedy Stiltner; a daughter, Coralee Mason Stiltner; a son, Travis Stiltner; and a granddaughter, Raelynn Aspen Stiltner. He also leaves behind one brother, Robert (Tina) Stiltner; three sisters, Debra (Robert) DeVries, Robin Stiltner and Paula Hilton; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

My brother, Mitchell, passed away with lung cancer. He rededicated his life to the Lord before he passed away. I feel that this was what he waited for; he had told me and his daughter that he was going away with a friend. On that morning, Mitchell's daughter told him it would be okay. Not long after that, he went away with that friend.

Mitchell died at home with his family by his side. I took care of Mitchell, we had a very special bond, he was very special. Mitchell loved all of his family; he was always there for them. He loved his Mom so very much. He always said, "If any woman walking this earth, his Mom had a special place in Heaven just waiting for her". Mitchell loved his daughter so much. She has so many good times to remember of her Dad. She always told him, "You are my whole world". Mitchell's life was cut short, he fought hard to beat his sickness but his friend wanted him more.

Mitchell loved working on cars, fishing and watching football, he was a Raider's fan. Most of all, he loved spending time with his daughter, they had a special bond.

Our pain and hurt is, oh, so deep but all of Mitchell's pain is gone, he can now walk, run, laugh and has no more pain, he went away with a friend. God only takes the best and Mitchell was the best. He is missed, there is another empty place in our home but God filled one more space in His garden.

Mitchell, I miss you so much. You are in my thoughts every day. You'll have no more pain; you went away with a friend.

Love, your sister, Debbie

HERSHEL JAMES STOLLINGS

It is with the help of the Lord and with much sadness that I will try to write the obituary of my beloved brother, Hershel James Stollings. He was born on September 1, 1934 in Hardy, Kentucky to the late Bernie and Hi Stollings, making his stay on earth eighty-four years.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Irvin Stollings and Frennie Stollings; and two sisters, Pearl Smith and Magdaline Hensley. He leaves behind to mourn his loss his loving wife of sixty-four years, Alfreda Blackburn Stollings of South Lebanon, Ohio; one daughter, Kathy (Philip) Nichols of Mainesville, Ohio; and a granddaughter, Tiffany Nichols of Mason, Ohio. He also leaves behind six sisters, Alane (Mike) Hunt of Tazewell, Virginia, Gale (Ray) Mollett of Goody Belfry, Kentucky, Jewel Scott of Richmond, Kentucky, Doris Wellman of Belfry, Kentucky, Adith (Virgil) Young of Hardy, Kentucky and Mildred Stanley of Hardy, Kentucky. In addition to this loving family he also leaves his church family and a host of dear friends and other beloved relatives.

Hershel graduated from Belfry High School in May 1953. He retired from General Electric Company of Cincinnati, Ohio in April 1992, where he was given an award as the firm's outstanding machinist. He ranked highest among the G.E. machinists in Evansdale, Ohio and the state of Massachusetts. While this award was special to Hershel, he knew his most important reward was yet to come. On July 13, 1975, he laid up his treasures in Heaven and joined the Northern New Home Old Regular Baptist Church in Goshen, Ohio, where he was a faithful and devoted member. He loved the Lord and loved to serve. He spent many countless hours taking care of the church and was a great worker and witness for the Lord. Hershel loved to share God's love and greet people as they came into the church.

Hershel also loved working with wood, often turning old wood into new creations. He spent many hours making hand crafted wood items so he could bless his family and friends with his crafts and talents. He shared his love of the Lord in the way he lived and loved, always willing to lend a helping hand to a neighbor, a friend, a family member or his church.

Hershel and I have spent many hours talking about our church, all the wonderful meetings, and how much the Lord has blessed us. While our hearts are broken at the loss of our dear Hershel, we celebrate knowing one day we will be joined in that great meeting with Jesus.

So, farewell for now my dear brother, you may be gone from our presence, but you are held close in our hearts.

Written with love by his sister, Jewel Scott

MICHELLE RENEE SWIGER

Michelle Renee Swiger, age forty-seven, of Betsy Layne, Kentucky, wife of Mark Swiger, passed away from this life on Monday, April 29, 2019 at the Pikeville Medical Center. Michelle was born on June 19, 1971. She was the daughter of the late Naomi Conn Ratliff.

Michelle was a loving wife, mother and granny who devoted her life to caring for children and serving the Lord. She was a member of the Betsy Layne Freewill Baptist Church.

Along with her husband, Mark, Michelle is survived by her children, Jayden Swiger of Morehead, Kentucky, Evan Swiger and his wife, Destiny, Mason Swiger and her daughter, Lorna Swiger, all of Betsy Layne; her two grandchildren, Taylee Swiger and Huxley; one brother, Barry Ratliff and his wife, Stacey, of Ivel, Kentucky; one sister, Daletta Boyd of Harold, Kentucky; her aunt and uncle, Ruth Ann and Larry Phipps; and her nieces and nephews, Dalton Boyd, Dalen Boyd, Jailyn Boyd, Kyle Ratliff and Karalin Ratliff; and a host of other family, friends and neighbors.

Michelle is truly missed by all who loved her. She was a special sister in the Lord: working in and supporting the Church and having her special place to sit when it came church time. She had a special group of brothers and sisters that she called her camping buddies. They loved to camp out and be together, sharing stories and their love for each other.

Michelle, we love you and you are alive today in our hearts and in our minds. The time that you had here on earth, you shared your love to so many little children and to their mothers and fathers. The Lord must have needed someone special to help take care of the babies that are in Heaven because of the love you showed to so many. We know our loss was Heaven's gain! We will keep pressing onward and we'll all be together before long.

Love, your family

THOMAS E. THACKER

It is with a sad and broken heart that I will try to write the obituary of my dear sweet husband, Elder Thomas E. Thacker. Thomas was born on April 19, 1940 in Raccoon, Kentucky to his parents, the late Dave Thacker and Opal Goff Thacker. Thomas passed away on August 11, 2019 at the Pikeville Medical Center, at the age of seventy nine.

Along with his parents, Thomas was preceded in death by his first wife, Sybil Coleman Thacker; two brothers, Jack D. and Bobby G. Thacker; and two sisters, Mandy Ramey and Bonnie Sue Thacker.

Left to mourn his passing is his wife, Nancy Harris Thacker; one daughter, Sandy (Wayne) Morris; two sons, Thomas R. (Shannon) Thacker and David R. (Jill) Thacker; one step-son, A.J. (Kimberly) Haris; six grandchildren, Miranda Blanton, Christina Wright, Robby Thacker, Kendall Jones, Hannah Manns and Nicholas Thacker; two step-grandchildren, Oliver Trenton and Olivia Tatum Harris; and four great grandchildren, Aiden and Adelynn Blanton and Sawyer and Henry Jones.

Thomas was owner and operator of Prestonsburg Auto Parts, Inc. for around thirty-five years before he retired. He was a minister at the Little Rosa Old Regular Baptist Church at McDowell, Kentucky. He joined church at the Chloe Creek Old Regular Baptist Church in Pikeville, Kentucky in the late 1970's.

Thomas always said the book of Psalms was his favorite book of the Bible to read because it was just so sweet. He said he really loved John, Chapter Three also. He really loved to read the Bible and really enjoyed singing and preaching so very much. He told me that he had been able to sing and line songs as far back as he could remember. Beulah Land and He's My All and All were two of his favorite songs. I can remember when we would enter church; so many people would start requesting Beulah Land. Thomas really enjoyed when he got to church because he just loved laughing and talking with everyone. That would always bring the biggest smile to his face.

Since Thomas had been sick for the past three or four years, he would say over and over to me, "Nancy, it would be so sweet to lay down, go to sleep, and just not wake up, because I'm ready to go on Home and be with the Lord." We don't stop and think about things that are said to us at the time, but after July 4th passed, Thomas told me he wouldn't be here for another winter.

I know you are in a better place with our Lord, no more suffering; Hallelujah, Praise God on high. Thomas, you will be loved and missed so very much by all your family and friends.

Thomas had a very special granddaughter, Olivia, who really loved her Papaw Tom so very much and visited him very often and called him on the phone. They had a special bond and he sure loved her. She always made him so happy.

I love you, your wife, Nancy

ONLY THE BEST

*A heart of gold stopped beating, two shining eyes at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove,
he only takes the best.
God knew you had to leave us,
but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
the day he took you Home.
To some you are forgotten,
to others just part of the past.
But to us that loved and lost you,
the memory will always last.*

JOHN BERNARD TRENT

On May 11, 2019, John Bernard Trent looked up from his hospital bed and said “Hello Mom, hello Dad, there He comes, I knowed He would”, with that, he quietly died.

Born on August 25, 1947, J.B. was the third of four children of Osie and Oma Holbrook Trent. His life as a boy was one of hard work and existence, still he persevered.

He married Devouia Mae Eldridge on June 28, 1968. His devotion to her was unwavering. Two sons, John Keith and Walter William were soon born. J.B.’s family was his focus. He was a simple man that loved Kentucky basketball, hunting and fishing.

J.B. was a coal miner. Driving a shuttle car underground in 2010, he experienced salvation. He was baptized into the Cedar Grove Church soon after.

With so much love, we cherish and remember J.B.

Wife, Devouia, and sons, John Keith and Walter William

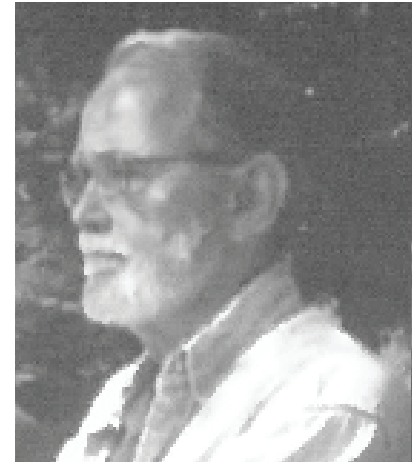

JOHN WALLHAUSSER

John Wallhausser, educator, scholar, and artist, passed away on Thursday, July 18, 2019 at his home in Berea, Kentucky. He was born on November 10, 1932 in San Pedro Sula, Honduras and emigrated from Germany to the United States in 1937.

John earned his bachelor’s degree at the University of Pittsburgh in 1954 and completed his PH.D. at Yale University in 1965. He served as Professor of Religion and Philosophy at Upsala College in East Orange, New Jersey from 1961 to 1975. Following a one year appointment as Visiting Lilly Professor at Berea College, John and his family moved to Berea, Kentucky in 1976. During his tenure of twenty-six years at Berea College, John served as chairperson for the Department of Philosophy and Religion, and as The Henry Mixter Penniman Professor of Philosophy. Through his work at the college, John also developed a close connection with the Old Regular Baptist communities in eastern Kentucky. He retired from Berea College in 2002.

John was an avid traveler, gardener and painter. In his later years, he traveled often to Italy, spending much time at Lake Orta. Many of his paintings focus of landscapes of this area. John delighted in the company of good friends and, above all, he loved his family.

John was preceded in death by his parents, Hans and Julianna Wallhausser. He is survived by his wife, Mary; brothers, William (Patricia) and Frederick; and sons, Chris (Lori), David (Cyndy) and Karl (Brenna). John’s grandchildren are Nicholas, Julianna, Hannah and John. Chloe and Carter are his great-grandchildren.

ALLEN D. WHITAKER

I will try to write the obituary of my husband, Elder Allen D. Whitaker. Allen was born on July 5, 1942 on Blair Branch to Amos and Nella Blair Whitaker. He had one sister, Wilma (James “Jake”) Halcomb; and three brothers, Roger (Debbie), Rulah (Peggy) and Johnny (Tammy).

We were married on October 8, 1960. We were blessed with two sons, Allen Ward (Dwana) and Anthony Wade (Lena); and three daughters, Opal (David) Jent, Melissa (Wayne) Fields and Alana Jo (Michael) Couch. We have thirteen grandchildren, ten great grandchildren and another one on the way.

Allen loved to fish, hunt and do stuff with his kids and grandkids. He worked hard for his family.

He felt the need of a Savior and in 1983, the Lord forgave him. We joined the church on April 1, 1983 and were baptized on April 24, 1983. The Lord called him to preach. He was the moderator of the Dixon Memorial Church and the assistant moderator at Kingdom Come and Little Bull Creek Church. He had also been assistant moderator at the Summertown Church. The Lord and church was his life. He was faithful to go until he became so sick in March.

We lost our son, Anthony Wade, on October 22, 2018, he went to be with the Lord. Then, Allen also went to be with the Lord on June 14, 2019. We miss him so much but our loss is Heaven’s gain.

Allen was preceded in death by his son, Anthony Wade; his parents, Amos and Nella Whitaker; brother, Roger Whitaker; sister, Wilma Halcomb; and grandchild, Clayton Eli Whitaker.

ANTHONY WADE WHITAKER

Anthony Wade Whitaker was born on a cold snowy night on December 30, 1963 to Allen and Sylvania Blair Whitaker. Wade had one brother, Allen Ward (Dwana) Whitaker and three sisters, Opal (David) Jent, Melissa (Wayne) Fields and Alana Jo (Michael) Couch.

On July 15, 1995, Wade married Lena Faye Collins. They were blessed with two sons, Austin Wade “Bud” (Keona who is expecting granddaughter, Arianna Don) and Alex Blake “Pud”.

Wade loved archery from the time he was young and was an assistant coach for LCHS. He loved all the kids who participated and loved to go to the tournaments. He loved hunting, fishing, family get togethers and children. He was a hard worker. Wade did carpentry work and he also worked at Blair Tire. He enjoyed going to the mines and talking to the workers.

Wade had cancer and was so sick. He said that he felt like the Lord had forgiven him. We miss him so but God needed him and took him out of his suffering on October 22, 2018. He enjoyed going to church and he knew the Bible well.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Amos and Nella Blair Whitaker and Clarence and Lucy Halcomb Blair. His dad, Allen D. Whitaker, joined him in Heaven only a few short months after his death.

MARGARET “JOANNE” LOU WRIGHT

Margaret Newman Wright, age 79, of Grethel, Kentucky, entered Heaven’s gate on July 21, 2019. She was born in Grethel on February 22, 1940 to Robert and Nannie Tackett Newman. She grew up in a happy, close knit family, with very loving and caring parents.

Margaret was referred to affectionally by her loved ones as Joanne, Aunt Lou or Sissy. She was the owner of Joanne’s Florist in Grethel, Kentucky, which she opened in 1992. She was very passionate about making floral arrangements and often asked God for guidance and direction.

She is preceded in death by her former husband, Jessie Perry Wright, who passed away on January 8, 1992. She is also preceded in death by her parents; her sister and best friend, Lizzie Newman Branham; her brother, Travis Newman; her sister, Inis Newman; her brother, Raymond Newman; and two step-sons, Lafe and Jack Hall.

Margaret is survived by her husband, Gene Hall of Grethel, Kentucky; seven step-children, Greg (Helen) Hall, Timothy (Teresa) Hall, Gary (Robin) Hall, Winnie Hall, Angela Charles-Zapata, Patrick (Susan) Hall, and Mary Loaiza; and eighteen grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

She is also survived by three brothers and their spouses, Willis and Joyce Newman, Melvin and Culla Newman and her special baby brother, Kenneth and Mary Ann Newman, all from Grethel, Kentucky; brother-in-law, James Branham; and sister-in-law, Christine Newman. She is also survived by her sister Lizzie’s children, Annette Branham, Anna Branham Mercedes and Jim Branham, whom she often referred to as her own children. She is survived by a host of other nieces and nephews whom she loved and adored with all her heart.

Before her passing, Margaret wrote the following note to share with her family. “To my family, thank-you for being there for me, you all were so special. I had a beautiful life, now it is time for me to move on to meet my loved ones who are waiting for me. I’m at rest and peaceful, will be waiting on the inside of the beautiful gates of Heaven for you, will be watching over you, live a good life, love everyone, God knows our love.” From me, Sissy, Aunt, Wife.

Margaret and Gene joined the Little Rosa Regular Baptist Church in the year of 2000. She loved our little church in McDowell, she will be missed.

ARTICLES OF FAITH OF THE INDIAN BOTTOM ASSOCIATION

1. We believe in the one true and living God, and notwithstanding there are Three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, yet there is but one in substance, equal in power and glory, not to be divided and impossible to change in principle and practice.
2. We believe the Old and New Testament Scriptures are the true written words of God and were given by inspiration of God and there is a sufficiency in them contained for our instruction and they are the only rule of our faith and practice.
3. We believe the doctrine of original sin, and that man sinned since the fall, and that men are by nature the children of wrath.
4. We believe in the impotency or inability of men to recover themselves out of the state they are in; therefore, a Savior is absolutely needed.
5. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.
6. We believe in the perseverance of the Saints. That by grace through faith they are born again and adopted into the family of Heaven; that they will become equal heirs with Jesus Christ in glory, and that He will raise them up at the last day.
7. We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are Gospel Ordinances; that true believers are the proper subjects and we admit no other.
8. We believe that the true mode of baptism is by immersion, to baptize a person by their own consent, back foremost in the water, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.
9. We believe that washing of one another's feet is a commandment of Christ, left on record with His disciples, and ought to be practiced by His followers.
10. We believe in the resurrection of the dead and general judgment when all will be judged according to their deeds done in the body.
11. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joys of the righteous will be eternal after death.
12. We believe that no one has the right to administer the Gospel Ordinances but such as are legally ordained and qualified there unto.
13. We believe it to be the duty of all church members to attend church meetings, and that it is the duty of the church to deal with them for neglecting same.
14. We believe it to be the duty of all church members to contribute to the support of the church by defraying all reasonable expenses of same, never neglecting the poor, according to their several abilities.
15. We believe that any doctrine that goes to encourage or indulge the people in their sins or cause them to settle down on anything short of saving grace in Christ for salvation is erroneous and such doctrine will be rejected by us.
16. We believe that in the beginning God made mankind male and female and said for this cause shall a man leave his father and mother and shall cleave to his wife and they twain shall be one flesh. Men with men and women with women is an abomination and is unseemly and unnatural. Our churches shall have no member that practices homosexuality.
17. None of the above articles shall be construed as to hold with particular election or reprobation as to make God partial directly or indirectly so as to injure children of man.
18. None of the above articles shall be altered without legal notice and free consent.

RULES OF DECORUM OF THE INDIAN BOTTOM ASSOCIATION

1. The Association shall open and close with prayer.
2. The moderator and assistant moderator, clerk and assistant clerk, shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.
3. Only one member shall speak at a time, and shall rise from his seat and address the moderator when he is about to speak.
4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by anyone except the moderator until he is done.
5. He shall strictly adhere to his subject and in no wise reflect on the preceding speaker, but define his ideas on the proposition for debate, so far as he can.
6. No person shall abruptly absent himself from the Association without leave of the same.
7. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on any subject without permission from the Association.
8. No member of the Association shall have the liberty to laugh during the sitting of the same, nor whisper in time of public speech.
9. No member shall address another in any other form or term than that of "Brother."
10. The moderator shall not interrupt a brother or prohibit him from speaking until he gives his views on the subject unless he shall violate the Rules of Decorum.
11. The names of the several members of the Association shall be enrolled by the clerk, and called as often as the Association may require.
12. The moderator shall be entitled to the same privileges of speech as any other member, provided the chair be filled, but he shall have no vote unless the Association be equally divided, in which event he shall give the deciding vote.
13. Any member who shall willfully and knowingly violate any of these rules shall be reprimanded by the Association as it may think proper.

CONSTITUTION OF THE INDIAN BOTTOM ASSOCIATION

Having by unanimous voice changed our organization from an annual meeting to an Association, we therefore propose to keep order and rules of an Association according to the following form of government:

1. The Association shall be called the Indian Bottom Association.
2. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the Association, who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying to their appointment, these shall be entitled to a seat.
3. In the letters from the different churches shall be expressed their full number in fellowship; those baptized, received by letter, restored, dismissed by letter, excluded and deceased since our last Association.
4. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord over God's heritage, nor shall they have any clerical power over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the rights of any of the churches in the union.
5. The Association, when convened, shall be governed by a regular and proper decorum.
6. The Association shall have a moderator and assistant moderator, clerk, assistant clerk, and treasurer, who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.
7. New churches may be admitted to this union, which shall petition by letter and delegates, and if found upon examination to be orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the moderator giving the right hand of fellowship.
8. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the Association.
9. Every query presented by the churches to the Association, being first debated in their own church, shall come under the consideration of the Association.
10. Every motion made and seconded shall be considered by the Association, except it be withdrawn by the party who made it.
11. We think it absolutely necessary that we have an Association fund for defraying the expense of the same. For the raising of which we think it the duty of each church in the Union to contribute such sums voluntarily as they think proper, and send it by their delegates, to be deposited with the treasurer, who shall be responsible to the Association, and pay same out, as the Association may direct.
12. There shall be an Association book kept in which the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by the secretary, who shall receive annual compensation for same.
13. The minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the moderator and clerk before the Association rises.
14. Amendments to this plan of government may be made by majority of the union when in regular session, when so desired.

15. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with minutes of the Association; the best method of effecting the same shall be determined by the Association.
16. All matters coming before the Association shall be decided by will of the majority of the members present.
17. The Association shall have the power to decide for the general union of the churches and to preserve an inviolable chain of communion among same, giving churches all necessary advice in matters of church difficulty; inquiring into the cause why any church shall have failed to represent itself any time in the Association; appropriate the money received to any purpose it may think proper; appoint any member or members by their consent to transact any business which it may think necessary; withdraw from any church in the union which may violate any of the rules of the Association or deviate from the orthodox principles of religion; admit any orderly minister of our faith and order to a seat in the Association and adjourn to any time or place it may deem necessary.
